THE ORIGIN OF THE ALLRED COAT OF ARMS

From Heraldry -- by Zaird

ALRED ------ Coat of Arms:

Arms - gu, (an abbreviation of "gules"), meaning RED, between three Griffins heads, erased ar, - armed or - ar, (an abbreviation of "argent"), meaning SILVER - or, means GOLD.

Crest - An arm in armour, in hand a crosslet, fitched in pale.

"Fitch" means to fasten or make sure, or "pointed".
"In pale" means "in the middle".
"Patent" means aged, or an aged person.

A Chevron, signifies support. It represents a pair of rafters, such as is set on the highest part of a house, for bearing of the roof, thereof.

A Crosslet, or Cross, stands for preservation and sustainance; God would preserve them in life as long as nature might sustain them.

The Griffins Head - It is said that a Griffin (which, of course, is an imaginary animal) will never be taken alive. Therefore, it sets forth the property or character of a VALOROUS, or VALIENT soldier, whose magnanimity is such, that he would rather expose himself to all dangers, and even to death itself, than to become a captive. Therefore, the Griffins head represents VALOR, and being unafraid of danger.

The Armored Arm - means "fortification", as the armor fortifies the arm of a soldier. How well this fits in with the cross or crosslet, held in the armored hand and arm in the CREST.

Of course, no Coat of Arms is complete without a HELMET and the MANTELING, just as a Knight's armour would be incomplete without a helmet.

The "Scroll", or manteling, (as it is called) on each side of the shield, represents the Knight's mantel.

ORIGIN OF THE NAME ALLRED, ALDRED, ALRED, ALLREAD ALLURED, OLDRED, OLRED, OLDREDD, ETC.

Allred means "Temple Counsel" or "Noble Counsel".
Allred, from Aldred or Aldreth: Soc. Camb. Noble Counsel.
Alured or Alvord, Eldred: Fe Allewurlled
Allard D. Allert P. See Alfred.
Dallert: p. "Self Counsel". (From the Book, The Meaning of Names.)

The prefix "al" or "all" in the name Allred, or Alred is sometimes interpreted, "All Noble." In the Anglo Saxon, "Eald" meant old. The Anglo Saxon "rad" or "red" meant "Counsel", so we may have the interpretation of the name as, "Noble Counsel", "Old Counsel", or even as "All the Counsel."

The first record we are aware of concerning one by the name of Aldred or Alred, or Allred, (as it was variously spelled) is as follows:

"The Venerable Aldred was residing at Cologne where he was treated with the utmost courtesy by the Archbishop of Cologne, with whom he remained as a guest for a whole year. This was in 1056. When the Archbishop of Cologne passed away he was succeeded by Allred in the year 1060. "Alfred, sometimes written Aldred was Archbishop of York at the time of Edward the Confessor's death and he performed the ceremony of Coronation for Harold on the following day. As the Archbishop of York he administered the Coronation oath and performed the office of Consecration for William The Conqueror, soon after the battle of Hastings. The Honor was due to Stigund, who was then Archbishop of Canterbury, but Stigund was odious to William because he was a great favorite with the English. Moreover, his elevation to that See had followed the expulsion of Robert The Norman, at the return of Gedwin, which greatly increased William's dislike for him.

"On the arrival of Matilda, wife of the Conqueror, she was also crowned by Alldred, as Queen of England. He seemed to have been a man of high moral and religious principles, and of very acute sensibilities. He is said to have died of grief and vexation at William's tyranny over his English subjects, and to have left his malediction upon him for the utter violation of his coronation oaths. It appears that at William's demand his Ministery was burned to the ground and upon this occasion he died of grief on the 11th of September 1069."

PREFACE

In presenting this publication to my numerous relatives and to any and all who may be interested in its contents, I wish to express my gratitude to those who have in any way contributed to its success. I feel especially indebted to the late Louis Ephraim Allred, whose love, understanding and diligence have added considerably to the records we have gathered over a period of more than forty years. I also wish to express appreciation for the research done by the late James Urban Allred, who went into the Southern States in his efforts to extend our knowledge of the Allred family.

We express thanks to Mary Viola Allred, who long served as secretary of the Allred Organization in the Western States, and who has willingly given assistance. The encouragement which my own brothers and sisters have given me is deeply appreciated.

I owe a debt of gratitude to my son-in-law, George Maycock, who has devoted unstintingly of his time and talent in a most conscientious and capable way over a long period to aid me in bringing this work to publication. Others also graciously gave of their time that this work might be consummated.

Archibald F. Bennett, Secretary of the Genealogical Society of Utah, has, over a period of many years, given the Allred Family Organization a most capable assistance; and it is to him that we owe the first part of this work.

We also wish to express our thanks to all those who have shown good faith in us by purchasing our book by subscription, before it came off the press. We are grateful for the patience demonstrated by so many who have waited long, and who have often called to encourage us in this dream -- a comprehensive Allred Family genealogy.

This book is not published under false pretenses. We know that mistakes are inevitable, notwithstanding every possible effort on our part to avoid them. At times we have received information that is in error. We have made mistakes in copying and typing. Sometimes the information is incomplete, though if we had waited longer and tried harder, we might have made it more complete. However, were we to wait for the perfection of the records, this work would never come to press.

Please help us in correcting any errors found, and in supplying additional information that will make this genealogical record more acceptable. Only by a sincere desire and concerted effort can we ever realize our hope of "turning the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to the fathers," and of bringing about the redemption of the living and the dead.

Our beautiful frontispiece was engraved from art submitted by Clement Allred of Hawthorne, California.

Pages 1-1 through 1-103, were prepared from a draft by Archibald F. Bennett, who was retained at the instance of Louis E. Allred to do this research (much of which was done by Brother Bennett while he was in England). We secured permission to use this thesis in the Introduction.

Descendants of Reverend Henry Allred, beginning on page 1-105, have been inserted in the Introduction and represent families organized by Brother Bennett and the author from additional research and correspondence.

Geographical abbreviations have been taken from the L. D. S. Genealogical Instruction Manual. Other abbreviations used herein are standard in genealogical compilation.

Included in Miscellaneous is a tabulation listing members of our family who served in the Mormon Battalion.

The Selected Generation Breakdown (see page 1-145) is a set of charts improvised to help the reader establish connections.

A separate index for the Introduction, beginning on page 1-181, has been provided in order to avoid encumbering the general Index (see page 10-1) with the many spelling variations of the family name.

The name codes for the descent of Thomas, William, Solomon and John are self explanatory. References to Appendices B, C and D, occur at the foot of each subject of the family group.

THE ALLRED FAMILY IN AMERICA

by Archibald F. Bennett

The origin of this surname traces back to Ancient Anglo-saxon times. It is said to be the compound of the Anglo-saxon "ald" or "eald", meaning old, and "rad" or "red", signifying wise counsel. In the old Gothic language it appeared as Aldred, and in the English as ALDRED or ELDRED.[1]

Another author terms ALDRED and ALDRIDGE as "undoubted survivals of Anglo-saxon compounds of "ARTHELRAED", "AETHERRAED", or "EALDRAED".[2]

A third explanation given is that the name has the signification of "all-dread", or "all-fear", since "all" and "ael" in old English and Saxon mean the same as the English "all", and "dred" is equivalent to our modern dread or fear. He then listed these equivalents:

"Aldred" (Saxon) All-fear. . . . ALDRIDGE (Saxon) The same as Aldred, of which it is a corruption.[3]

The interchangeable character of the surnames ALDRED and ALDRIDGE is illustrated by the earliest entries relating to this family in America, and from some of those traced back to the records of England.

THE ALDRED-ALDRIDGE FAMILY OF DEDHAM, MASSACHUSETTS

A certain Henry CHICKERING, yoeman, born about 1560, was living in the Parish of Bramfield, Suffolk, England, as early as the year 1588. In the baptism records of Bramfield Parish are recorded the christenings of four of his children:

1588-9 Jan 5 Henry CHICKERING sonne of Henry CHICKERINGE. p. 9. (This son died at Dedham, Mass., July 21, 1671, age 82 years; he was living at Ringsfield, Suffolk, when he married, 1st, by lic. dated May 4, 1622, Elizabeth Smithe, widow.)[4]

1591 May 20 Mary CHICKERINGE daughter of Henry CHICKERINGE. p.10. (THOMAS ALDERED and MARY CHICKERING were married at Thorington, near Bramfield, May 3, 1624. Their son HENRY settled at Dedham, Mass.)[5]

1593 Dec 28 John CHICKERINGE sonne of Henry CHICKERINGE. p. 10. (He lived at Henstead, Suffolk, and made his will Dec. 20, 1652, in which he named "his loving friends JOHN ALDRED and THOMAS ALDRED supervisors. [6]

1595 Sep 12 Reginald CHICKERINGE sonne of Henry CHICKERINGE. p. 10.

The existing registers of Bramfield unfortunately end with the year 1596, there being a gap from then until the year 1693. But Henry CHICKERINGE had other children, including a son Francis, who died at Dedham, Mass., Oct. 10, 1658, he having emigrated and become a proprietor there in 1638.

It is possible that Thomas ALDRED, husband of Mary CHICKERING, permited their son Henry ALDRED to go to America with his two uncles, Henry and Francis Chickering in 1638 or 1639, when he was not more than fifteen years old. In the meantime Mary's father had died. The will of Henry CHICKERINGE of Ringsfield, Suffolk, yoeman, was dated Jan. 11, 1626, and proved July 7, 1627. In it he mentions his wife, Mary, and many others, son John Chickeringe, son Symon, who, after the death of the testator's wife Mary, was to have the freehold late purchased in Thorington, Suffolk, known by the name of Swayles, containing 10 acres more or less; son Henry; son Reynold; two sons, John Chickeringe and Francis Chickeringe; "to daughter Mary, now wife of THOMAS ALDRED of Brampton - 15. "[1]

HENRY ALDRED was in Dedham, Mass., by 1641, for the Dedham

6 New England Register, 64:136-137.

Town and Selectman Records, Vol. 3, p. 81, contains this entry:

"Henry Aldridge is pmised to be considered for some upland and meadow." "Henry Aldridge is entertained upon two acres of Tho Eames his lott." Nov. 11, 1641 In the next entry he is also recorded as H. Aldridge, in the same record, p. 92; which names persons assembled, including Hen: Chickeringe and Henry Aldridge. Again on "13 1mo 1644-5" which would now be recorded as Jan. 13, 1645, we read:

"Henry Aldridge is pmised to be considered for some upland and meadow." Earlier on "6 10mo 1644" he had his name recorded for a misdemeanor: "Henry Aldridge is amerced 2s for felling hoope poles contrary to order." On 4 2mo 1644-5, ie Feb. 4, 1645; "Lot 16, 3 acres granted to Hen: Aldridge for a woodland."

Even after his death in a valuation of houses in Dedham, the house of Hen: Aldridg is enumerated. Thus it will be seen that upon the Town Books he consistently is recorded as Aldridge. (New England Register 194:282.) However, upon the Church Records, of four entries preserved, in three he is called ALLDRED, but the final entry is ALLDRIDGE, as will be seen from these actual quotations from the records:

"Henery Alldred was admitted into ye church 8d 7m 1643" "Thomas ye sone of brother Henery Alldred was baptised 17d 7m 1643." "Samuell ye sone of brother Henery Alldred & his wife was baptised 17d 1m 1644." "Henery Alldridge departed this life 24d 12m 1645."
From Records of the First Church, Dedham, pp. 27, 28, 29.

On the contrary, in the Dedham Vital Records, as recorded by the Town Clerk, the family name is always set down as ALDRIDGE. ie:

"Mary the dau. of Henry & Mary Aldridge was borne the 10 of the 1 mo 1643. "Samuel the son of Henry & Mary Aldridge was borne 10d 1 mo 1645. "Thomas Aldridge and Hannah Colburn married Jan. 16:77. "Thomas Alderidg and Elizabeth Prentic married 4: 3: 75. "Samuel Judson & Mary Aldridge married the 6 of the 8mo 1646. "Thomas Aldridg deceased October 23, 1694. "Mary Aldridge deceased the 24 of ye 2mo 1643. "Henry Aldridge deceased the 23 of the 12 mo 1645. (Dedham Vital Records, pp. 2, 14, 17, 24, 126-127.

Of this same family the eminent New England Genealogist, Savage, wrote as follows, in his Genealogical Dictionary of New England Families:

"Henry ALDRIDGE or ALDRICH, Dedham, Mass., died 23 Feb. 1646; had Mary, b. 19 Mar. 1643, d. soon. Samuel, b. 10 Mar. 1645; and perhaps before settlement at Dedham, Thomas. His widow Mary, md. 2nd, Samuel Judson and 3rd, John Hayward.

"THOMAS, Dedham, perhaps son of Henry, d. 23 Oct. 1694. He married 4 May 1675, Eliz., dau. brave Capt. Thomas Prentice. She died Feb. following. He married 2nd, 16 Jan. 1678, Hannah, dau. Nathan Colburn, and had Hannah, b. 17 Dec. 1679; John, b. 8 May 1681; Mary, b. 5 Aug. 1683; Thomas, b. 17 Apr. 1685. Perhaps this name became Eldridge sometimes." (Savage Genealogical Dictionary 1: p. 25.)

Because Savage failed to note the entries in the Dedham Church Record under the name of Alldred, he failed to detect the evidence that THOMAS was actually a son of Henry and Mary.

Continuing the history of the Dedham family, the following entries are noted in the Town and Selectman Records, Vol. 3:

"11 Mar. 1662-3 Tho Aldridge makes a motion in the bahalfe of his mother to take up her natick Devident neare to Cornelias Tiders land beyond the great plaine. Granted." (p. 61) "21 Dec. 1663 Thomas Aldridge makes a motion in behalfe of his mother to have a grant of about halfe an acre of land near her house toward the cranberry meadows in liew of part of her natick Devident." (p.71) "Assemb:the 5 of Mar. 1665-6. The Selectmen being met together with our reverent pastor and some other of the inhabitants: to take into consideration the case of Samuell Aldridge his mother and brother Thomas being present, after much adjatation and consideration of the case the widowe Judson in the behalfe of her sonn Samuel declare here solve willing to provide for him suitable to his condition and to that end the select men, having chosinge ensigne Daniel Fisher and the widdowe Judson having made choice of Petter Woodward and Timothy Dwight for to treat with goodman Green of Cambridge or any other mete person 7 conclud with him or them on as good and easy terms as they can for the larnigne of the said Sammell, a trad whereby he may be in sume messure able for futture to provide for him solve.

Under date of 3 May 1665 appear the signatures of "Thomas Aldridg" and "Samuel Aldridge." (pp. 227-8) Mary her X mark Judson (p. 115.)

In the Dedham Vital Records appear these further entries relating to the family of Thomas:

"Elizabeth Alderidg deceased 5: 12: 75. "Hannah Aldred, dec. 12:1: 1681. "John Alderidg, deceased 11: 8: 82. "John sonn of Thomas & Hannah Alderidge, born 8: 3: 1681. "Mary dau. of Thomas & Hannah Alderidge, borne ye 5: 6: 83. "Hannah, dau. of Thomas & Hannah Alderidg was borne ye 17: 10: 79. "Thomas, the son of Thomas & Hanna Aldridge was born April 17, 85. "Hannah Aldredge deceased April the 3, 1728." (Dedham Vital Records, pp. 15, 19, 21, 55.)

There are many entries upon the Town Records relating to Hannah, Samuel and Thomas Aldridge between the years 1672 and 1706.

"In the Suffolk Registry of Probate is recorded the distribution made December 10, 1718, by three commissioners, of the lands of Thomas 'Alderidge' of Dedham. Mr. Aldridge was a large owner of land in Dedham, and also had 150, or more, acres in Needham, which are described and bounded in the report of the commissioners.

"His heirs were his widow, Hannah, Thomas, his only son, and Mary, his only daughter, wife of Joseph Lyon of Rexbury .... The son Thomas had 70 acres of the same parcel in which the widow had the 35 acres.

"Thomas Aldridge's name occurs repeatedly as an owner of land in the Proprietor's Records (Dedham), ... Thomas 'Aldridg' had 2 acres at North Hill in 1674." (Dedham Historical Register, 10:45-56.)

Suffolk County Wills show that the will of Samuel Aldridge, No. 4568, was proved there in 1722; the will of his brother or rather the administration of his brother, Thomas Aldridge's estate, was granted in 1700 (No. 2613); and the administration of the latter's son Thomas was granted in 1759 (No. 11947). (Suffolk Probate Registry, Boston.)

"On February 27, 1722-3 the selectmen (of Needham) received £5 from the executors of Samuel Aldridge, a gift from Mr. Aldridge for the maintenance of the school." (Dedham Historical Register, 14:2.)

Thus we see that by this date the spelling of Aldridge had become fairly well fixed.

HENRY ALDRED or ALDRIDGE, son of Thomas Aldred and Mary Chickering, was born probably in the early months of 1625, his parents having been married at Thorington, Suffolk, England, May 3, 1624. Since in 1626 Thomas Aldred was living at Brampton, Suffolk, it is probable that Henry was born there. He was in Dedham, Mass. by Nov. 11, 1641; and probably married there or in that vicinity while still very young, MARY ..... He died at Dedham, Mass., 23 Feb. 1645-6. His widow married 2nd, Oct. 6, 1646, Samuel Judson. After his death she married John Hayward. Children of Henry Aldred and Mary:

I THOMAS, b. abt 1642, Dedham, Norfolk, Mass.; d. there 23 Oct. 1694; mar 1st, 4 May 1675, Elizabeth Prentice; mar 2nd, 16 Jan. 1677-8, Hannah Coburn.

II MARY, b. 10 Mar. 1643, Dedham, Norfolk, Mass.; d. there 24 Apr. 1643.

III SAMUEL, b. 10 Mar. 1645, Dedham, Norfolk, Mass.; will proved in 1722; probably never married.

THOMAS ALDRED or ALDRIDGE, son of Henry and Mary Aldred or Aldridge, was born at Dedham, Norfolk, Mass., about 1642. After his father joined the Church at Dedham on September 8, 1643 his son Thomas was christened there nine days later, September 17th, as "Thomas ye sone of our brother Henery Alldred." In all later entries in the vital records and town records his surname is recorded as Aldridge. He died at Dedham October 23, 1694; and administration on his estate was granted in 1700. On December 10, 1718 a final distribution was made on his estate, consisting of a number of acres of land in Dedham and Needham. His heirs were his widow Hannah, his only son Thomas and his only daughter, Mary, wife of Joseph Lyon of Rexbury, Mass.

He married 1st, at Dedham, May 4, 1675 ELIZABETH PRENTICE, daughter of the brave Captain Thomas Prentice and his wife Grace of Cambridge (later Newton), Mass. She was born, a twin, at Cambridge, Jan. 22, 1649-50; and died at Dedham within several months of her marriage Feb. 5, 1675-6. (Paige: History of Cambridge, p. 628.) Thomas married 2nd, Jan. 16, 1677-8, HANNAH COBURN, daughter of Nathaniel Colburn and Priscilla Clarke of Dedham. She was born there Jan. 20, 1652-3; and died at Dedham Apr. 3, 1728. (Dedham Historical Register, 2:110.) Children of Thomas Aldred or Aldridge and Hannah Colburn:

I HANNAH, b. 17 Dec. 1679, Dedham, Norfolk, Mass.; d. there 12 Mar. 1681.

II JOHN, b. 8 May 1681, Dedham, Norfolk, Mass.; d. there 11 Oct. 1682.

III MARY, b. 5 Aug. 1683, Dedham, Norfolk, Mass.; living in 1718 at Roxbury, Mass.; mar Joseph Lyon.

IV THOMAS, b 17 Apr. 1685, Dedham, Norfolk, Mass.; d. 1759.

THE ELDRED-ELDRIDGE FAMILY OF YARMOUTH, MASS.

A carefully compiled article on "Eldridge Genealogy" by Zoeth S. Eldredge, Esq., of San Francisco, California, was printed in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol. 51, pp. 46-47 et seq., from which these excerpts are taken:

"The name of Eldredge, or as it was originally written, Eldred, in Saxon. Eldred was the name of several kings of the Saxons in the eighth and ninth centuries. Eldred was King of Chester, A. D., 951. An Eldred (Aldred) was Saxon Archbishop of York (and Canterbury) in 1066 and according to the historian Thiery cursed William the Conqueror....

"John Eldred, of Great Saxham, in Suffolk, descended from an ancient family claiming Saxon origin. Tradition says that he purchased the Great Saxham estates because of his belief that his ancestors, in remote ages, as Saxon kings, had held the Saxhams as their great Saxon Home.

"He was born in 1552 and died in 1632. He was a great traveler and his ships and merchandise went to all parts of the world. He was one of the founders of Virginia and from 1609 to 1624 was a member of His Majesty's Council for the Virginia Company of London. The brass to 'John Eldred the Navigator' at Great Saxham, has the arms of the East India Merchants, the Levant or Turkey Merchants, and the Russia Merchants Companies. He left four sons and four daughters. Thomas Lee, of Coton, in Shropshire (the seat of Lancelot Lee, Esq.) married Dorothy, granddaughter of John Eldred. ....

"As John Eldred of Great Saxham was at that time (abt 1620) and for fifteen years a director of the Virginia Company of London, it is possible that the Eldreds who appeared in New England between the years 1635 and 1645, viz: WILLIAM, ROBERT, SAMUEL, JOHN and NATHANIEL, were in some way connected with his family.

"WILLIAM ELDRED is known to have been a resident of Yarmouth from March 3, 1645 to 1667. It is thought that William of Yarmouth, Robert of Yarmouth and Monomoy and Samuel of Cambridge and Stonington, were brothers, and that they came from England about 1635. They all appear to have been men of standing and substance. William was appointed constable in Yarmouth .... He was also surveyor of highways. He married ANNE, daughter of William and Tamesin LUMPKIN, of Yarmouth ... Anne, his wife, was buried Nov. 1, 1676."

Among the children of William Eldred and Tamesin Lumpkin were Elisha, named in the will of his grandfather William Lumpkin in 1668 as "Elisha Eldred" his grandchild, and Samuel Eldred. The manner in which their surname, in the second and third generations changed from ELDRED to ELDREDGE or ELDRIDGE is interesting. Elisha died and his name on his gravestone is spelled Eldredg. He is the ancestor of the Eldredge family in Utah, of whom Horace S. Eldredge, his daughter Alpha May Eldredge, wife of the late Senator Reed Smoot, and Postmaster Isaac Albert Smoot of Salt Lake City are prominent descendants. (Utah Genealogical and Historical Magazine, 4:149, 186.)

SAMUEL ELDRED, of Yarmouth, Mass. (my own ancestor), son of William Eldred and Tamesin Lumpkin, had the record of his family recorded upon the vital records of Yarmouth, as follows (in the original spelling):

"Samuell Eldred & kersiah Taylor marryed the 6th of feb. 80. (Mayflower Descendant, 2:208.)

"A Regester of ye names and times of ye bearthes of ye children of Samuell, and Keziah: Eldred:

"Samuell Eldred, ye Son of ye Said Samuell Eldread was Borne upon: 25th: day of September: 1681:

"Jehoshepath: Eldred: ye Son of ye above Said Eldred was Borne: ye: 12th: day of October: 1683:

"Mehetabell Eldred, ye daughter of ye above said Eldred was Born upon, ye ... in January: 1686-7:

"Ezekiell: Eldred ye Son of ye above said Eldreads was Borne in March in ye year: 1689:

"Ann: Eldred ye daughter of ye above Said was Born in Aprell in ye year: 1691:

"John Eldred ye Son of Ye Said Samuell & Keziah was: Borne in february; 1692:

"Kesiah: Eldred ye daughter of ye above Said Samuell and Kesiah Eldred was Born in march: 1695:

"Mary Eldred ye daughtuer of ye above Said Samuell and: Kesiah Eldred was Borne in march: 1697: (Ibid., 10:24.) (Mayflower Descendant)

The son EZEKIAL (my ancestor) married Bethia Ryder 27 Jan. 1715. Their Children, three of whom are recorded at Yarmouth, were all listed as Eldredg (variant spellings); and henceforth the descendants have been known as Eldredge and Eldridge.

"ann Eldredg (the daughter of Ezekell and bethyah Eldredg) she was borne on the 23rd day of august in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred & seventeen:

"Samuel Eldredg: son of the above sd Ezekel & bethyah Eldredg: he was born on the last day of July in the year of our lord: 1717: (Sic., See preceding entry.)

"Ezekell Eldrege: son of ye above sd Ezekel & bethyah Eldreg: he was born on ye 2 day of april in ye year of our lord: 1722" (Ibid:23: 109-10.)

Of the other Eldreds who emigrated from England to America, Savage in his Genealogical Dictionary, 2: 107-108, speaks of John Eldred of Hampton, 1640: John Eldred, of Warwick; Samuel Eldred of Cambridge, 1646, who by wife Elizabeth had Elizabeth, b. 26 Oct. 1642; Samuel, b. 26 Oct. 1644; Mary, b. 15 June 1646; and Thomas, b. 8 Sept. 1648. "Very often," he says, "it is Eldridge.", referring to this surname.

Under Eldridge he ennumerates James of Stonington, 1670; NATHANIEL ELDRIDGE, of Windsor, 1642; NATHANIEL ELDRIDGE, of Chatham, son of ROBERT ELDRIDGE of Yarmouth, mar the last week in October, 1649, Elizabeth, daughter of William Nickerson, and had a son Nicholas, b. 18 Aug. 1650; SAMUEL ELDRIDGE, of Stonington, constable in 1670; and THOMAS ELDRIDGE, of Boston, 1674, a ship carpenter.

THE ALLRED FAMILY IN AMERICA

ENGLISH ORIGIN OF THE FAMILY

THE ALDRED* - ELDRED FAMILY OF NORFOLK and SUFFOLK, ENGLAND

(With variant spellings ALDRIDGE, ALDRICH, ELDRIDGE, ALRED, ALLURED, ALURED, ALDERAD, OULDRED, etc.)

It has been shown that HENRY ALDRED or ALDRIDGE of Dedham, Mass., came from Suffolk, England, being the son of THOMAS ALDRED who was married at Thorington and lived at Brampton, Suffolk. Likewise, JOHN ELDRED, the famous navigator and merchant was of Great Saxham, in Suffolk, but was born just over the border in Norfolk.

The home of the Eldreds of Yarmouth, Mass., is indicated in Col. Hanks' Topographical Dictionary of English Emigrants to New Eng., p. 157, where it is stated that SAMUEL ELDRED, who settled in Cambridge, Mass., and in Kingston and Wickford, Rhode Island, emigrated from Lavenham, Suffolk, England.

It is reasonable, therefore, to look to Suffolk and the adjoining County of Norfolk, England, for the origin of the ALDRED-ELDRED FAMILY.

This area was in all probability the home of the original ALDREDS. Evidence at hand proves that persons bearing this surname in its varied forms of spelling were living in this general locality from the time when surnames first came into general use. Early notices of the name will serve to indicate the general history and homes of the family.

In the year 1236 A. D. ROGER ALDRED held a third of the Manor of Moulton, Norfolk, about 8 miles west of Great Yarmouth. (Henry W. Aldred: Suffolk Records, 1888, p. 51.)

In 1327 a Suffolk Subsidy Return or tax list showed the following:

ROBERT ALDRED was taxed at Thorney (Stowmarket), Hundred of Stowe.

WILLIAM ALDRED was taxed at Onehouse with Harleston and Challende, in the same Hundred.

ROBERT ALRED was taxed at Werlingworthe with Seham, Hundred of Hoxne.

JOHN ALRICH was taxed at Westletone, Hundred of Blythyagge.

ROBERT ALRICH was taxed at Sibetone, Walpole and Cokeleye, same Hundred.

ROGER ALRICH was taxed at Werlingham with Cove, Hundred of Wangford.

ROBERT ALDRED was taxed at Halsted, Thingoe Hundred.

(Suffolk Subsidy Return, 1327, pp. 40, 44, 56, 60, 76, 86, 163.) None of the name Eldred appeared in this early enumeration.

In a later Lay Subsidy of 1381 is listed:

JOHN ALDERYD, of Shellond, Harleston and Onehouse, Stowe Hundred. (The East Anglia Rising, 1381, p. 98.).

On July 11, 1396 a Norfolk Sessions Roll of a Court held at Norwich records that:

JOHN ALREDE, one of the mainpernors (sureties for the appearance in court) of John Drury of Kerbrook, was under pain of £100 to have him at the next delivery of gael at the Castle of Norwich. (Norfolk Record Society, Vol. VIII, p. 11.)

In the same year WILLIAM ALRED was Rector of Huntingfield, Suffolk (about four miles west of Bramfield). (Henry W. Aldred: Suffolk Rec., p. 51.)

Previously, in 1376, THOMAS AYLREED, of Watlyngton, capells, had his will proved in the Consistory Court of Norwich (122, 123 Heyden). His residence was six miles south of King's Lynn. (Wills Proved in the Consistory Court of Norwich, 1370-1550, p. 19.)

Shortly after 1400 RICHARD ALDRED alias ALRED was born. He married Elizabeth de Coggeshall, sister and heiress of Richard de Coggeshall, Lord of the Manor of Newhall in Boreham, Essex. Thus he became Lord of the Manors of Kewton alias Cuton Hall and Newhall, in Boreham. He was also Lord of the Manor called ALREDYS MANOR within the parish of Fornham All Saints within two miles of Bury St. Edmunds, Suffolk. This Manor of Aldred's was earlier under the jurisdiction of monks of St. Edmund. In the twenty-third year of the reign of King Henry VI (1445) a memorandum preserved in the British Museum refers to this Manor in Fornham All Saints as "formerly of RICHARD ALDRED called ALREDYS MANOR." In the same year by royal license of alienation it became united once again to the possession of St. Edmund; and the Abbot of St. Edmund's was given title to "the manor of Fornham All Saints, called ALDRED'S MANOR, one hundred acres of land."

"On the dissolution of the monastery of St. Edmund, the manor of Farnham All Saints, of which Aldred's was parcel, became the property of Sir Thomas Kytson (25 Mar. 1540) .... Fornham All Saints Hall, or Grange, where the manor court continues to be held, stands east of the church, near the highway leading to Fornham St., Genevieve. A moated building converted into dwellings, called ALDRIDGES, near the church on the north side, occupies the site of ALDRED'S, which was an occasional retreat of Abbot Boon. (Gage: History of Suff. Thingoe Hundred, 1838, pp. 242-243: Aldred: Suffolk Records, pp. 51-52.)

RICHARD ALDRED and ELIZABETH DE COGGESHALL had a son and heir, and a daughter. Children of Richard Aldred and Elizabeth de Coggeshall:

I (SIR) WILLIAM ALDRED, b. 1433, was 15 years old at the time of his father's death; when he succeeded to the above Manors. He was a soul priest of Diss, Norfolk, in 1487. ((Blomefield: History of Norfolk, Diss Hundred, 1:18.)

II MARGARET, mar before 1461, Henry Curzon.

Richard Aldred, the father, was an important man. He served as Sheriff of Essex and Hertford, and was one of the Executors of the Will of Queen Catherine. His will was dated Mar. 8, 1446; he died in 1448, and his Inquisition post Mortem was held in 1448. (Aldred: Suffolk Records, p. 51.)

In 1415-1416 the records of Bromholm Priory show they bought 130 "fadinos" of reed from William Edyre for 18s 6d. "And 130 fadinos of reed bought from the same William 13s 4d." (Norfolk Record Society, Vol. XVII, p. 77.) Bromholm is four miles northeast of North Walsham.

JOHN ALDRED or ELDRED, progenitor of the ELDRED family of New Buckenham, Norfolk, Knettishall and Great Saxham, Suffolk, was born probably about the year 1422. For his descendants see The Eldred Family.

The will of AGNES ALDRED of Walkote was proved in 1427, in the Consistory Court of Norwich. (11 Surflete.) (Wills proved in the Consistory Court of Norwich, 1350-1550, (Norwich Record Society, Vol. XVI,

p. 7.) Walcott is a Parish five miles east of North Walsham.)

The will of JOHN ALDERYCH of Wyseete was proved in 1440 (130 Doke). Wissett is a village in East Suffolk, two miles northwest of Halesworth.

The following table of Wills is drawn from Calendars of those Proved at Norwich Consistory Court, 1370-1550; Bury St., Edmunds and Ipswich. The Court of Probate is denoted by the initials (N), (B), and (I). Spellings of Surnames are as in the printed Calendars.

II THE ELDRED FAMILY of SUFFOLK, NORFOLK and LONDON

This is the family who were progenitors of John Eldred, the famous traveler, and for years a prominent director of the Virginia Company of London. (See page 7.)

As early as 1327 ROBERT ALDRED and WILLIAM ALDRED were taxed in Suffolk; the former at Stowmarket, and the latter at Onehouse. ROBERT ALDRED was taxed at Halstead, in Thingoe Hundred, in the immediate vicinity of Great Saxham, later the home of John ELDRED, the merchant.

RICHARD ALDRED or ALRED, of Farnham All Saints, in 1440, also lived not far away; and his son, (SIR) WILLIAM ALDRED was living at Diss, Norfolk, in 1487. (See page 12.)

JOHN ELDRED, of Knatshall (now Knettishall) in Suffolk, was born about 1422. No record of his will has been found which can be identified as his. He was probably the father of ROBERT ELDRED of Gnateshale, whose will was dated 20 Mar. 1485, and was Proved at Bury St. Edmunds, 12th of Apr. 1485. (Book III:320) John had a son WILLIAM, probably the William Alred of Saxham Magna, whose will was dated 10 Sep. 1494; proved at Bury 17 Nov. 1494. (Book V:14.)

WILLIAM ALRED or ELDRED, son of JOHN ELDRED, was born about 1454; probably living and having holdings at both Knatshall and Great Saxham. He died in 1494; when his will was made he was described as of Saxham Magna (ie. Great Saxham). His wife may have been Agnes (Aldred) ELDRED, who was living at Knattishall in 1525. It is known that he had a son JOHN ELDRED and probably the ROBERT ELDRED listed with John in the Subsidy Return for that year was another son; although he may have been the son of the earlier Robert. (will 1485.) These wills should be obtained and studied in this connection.

JOHN ELDRED, of Knatshall, son of William and grandson of John of Knatshall, was born about 1486, and he was living in 1558. He was taxed at Knatshall in the Subsidy of 1524. He was the father of JOHN ELDRED, JR., and evidently others.

In the 6th year of Henry VIII (1515), Thomas Coupe of Garboldsham confirmed to REGINALD ELDRED of Gnateshall, Yoeman, and others, lands in Gnateshall, lying between a messauge and a croft of JOHN ELDRED. In the 19th year of Henry VIII (1528), Richard Bryan and John Wellys, in pursuance of the will of REGINALD ELDRED, late of Gnateshall, deceased, confirmed to AGNES ELDRED his widow, JOHN ELDRED, of Easthop, Reginald Gent, and JOHN ELDRED, younger son of the said AGNES, a messauge and thirteen pieces of land in Gnateshall, to the use of Agnes in fee. In the 19th year of Henry VIII (1528), JOHN ELDRED of Gnateshall, and others, confirmed to his older brother, JOHN ELDRED, and to JOHN ELDRED of Easthop, and others, two messauges in Gnateshall, to the use of JOHN ELDRED the elder. ROBERT ELDRED is a witness to a grant of lands in Gnateshall of JOHN ELDRED, Yoeman, in the 3rd year of Edward VI (1550).-Chartae penes Dom. Thom. Phillips., Bart.

"In the Archdeaconry Court of Norfolk is a will of JOHN ELDRED the younger, of New Buckenham in Norfolk, Husbandman, dated 14th Sept. 1558, proved in November following by JOHN ELDRED his father, and MARGARET the testator's widow. He names in his will his daughter MARGARET, and his two sons PETER and JOHN. The notice of the burial of the testator occurs in the registry of New Buckenham under the date of the 21st Sept. 1558. There is only one entry relating to this family prior to that date, --the burial of ANN ELDRED on the 28th July 1548. PETER ELDRED, of London, Grocer, 1633, third son of PETER ELDRED, of New Buckenham, bore, as appears by a Norfolk Visitation at the College of Arms, the arms of the Eldreds of Saxham, with a mullet for difference. Crest, a demi-lion supporting a staff ragulo. It was doubtless affection for native place which induced JOHN ELDRED of Saxham to be a purchaser of the Priory manor in New Buckenham." (Gage: Hist. of Suff., Thingoe Hundred, 1838, p. 107.)

JOHN ELDER, JR., son of John the elder, grandson of William and great-grandson of John the first, was born about 1518, at Knattishall; but removed prior to 1548 to New Buckenham, Norfolk. He had a wife MARGARET, who survived him, and at least four sons, including PETER and JOHN. The ANN ELDRED buried in 1548 may have been his daughter. Children of JOHN ELDRED, JR., and Margaret:

I first born son, b. abt. 1542

II second son, b. abt. 1544

III ? ANN, b. abt. 1546, bur. at New Buckenham, Norfolk, 28 July 1548.

x IV PETER, b. abt. 1548, of New Buckenham; mar JONE EVANS.

V MARGARET, b abt. 1550

VI JOHN, b. 1552, New Buckenham, Norfolk, Eng.; bur 8 Dec 1632, age 80, at Great Saxham, Suffolk, Eng.; mar MARY RIVETT.

PETER ELDRED, son of John Eldred, Jr., and Margaret, was born about 1548 at New Buckenham, Norfolk, England, where he continued to reside. He married "JONE, dau of ..... EVANS, of Taseborough, in com. Norfolk", England. His third son was PETER ELDRED of London, living there in 1633. Children of PETER ELDRED and JONE EVANS:

I first born son, b. abt. 1574, New Buckenham, Norfolk, England.

II second son, b.abt. 1576, New Buckenham, Norfolk, England.

III PETER, third son, b. abt. 1580, New Buckenham, living as a grocer in London at the visitation of 1633. He married ALICE, dau. of Thomas Tyler, of Eaton in com. Norfolk. 2 He resided on Brand Street. 2. (Visitation of London, Harlien 15. p. 251.)

JOHN ELDRED, famous merchant and traveler, was the 4th son of John Eldred, Jr., of Buckenham, Norfolk, (New Buckenham, Norfolk, and his wife Margaret.)

The Dictionary of National Biography, Vol. XVII, pp. 174-175, contains this interesting account of his adventures:

"ELDRED, JOHN (1552-1632), traveler, was born in 1552 at New Buckenham in Norfolk, to which place his father had removed from Knattishall, Norfolk, where the Family had been settled for several generations. It seems probable that he went to London while still a lad, devoted himself to business and prospered. He was already a well to do Merchant when 'upon shrove Monday, 1583' he 'departed out of London in the ship called the Tiger, in the company of Mr. John Newbury, Mr. Ralph Fitch, and six or seven other honest Merchants.' On the 1st of May they arrived at Tripoli in Syria, and after staying there for a fortnight went on to Aleppo, and thence to Bur on the Euphrates. At Bur they took boat down the river as far as Feludjah, where after a week's delay they hired a hundred asses to convey their merchandise to England. There they stayed for some days, and reshipping their wares in boats on the Tigris, came at length to Bassorsh. At Bassorsh ELDRED remained for six months engaged in the business of the journey, to such good purpose that when he and his companions departed on their return, it took seventy barks to carry them and their merchandise consisting mainly of spices; bales of cinnamon and nutmeg being more especially mentioned. These barks were tracked up the stream by fourteen men to each, and so in fourty-four days arrived at Bagdad, where the adventurers provisioned for the land journey, and departed in company with many other merchants, and an enormous Caravan of four thousand camels, laden with spices and other rich merchandise. After forty days journey they arrived at Aleppo on 11 June 1584. For the next three years ELDRED made Aleppo his headquarters; 'in which time', to quote his own words, 'I made two voyages more into Babylon (Bagdad), and returned by the way aforesaid, over the deserts of Arabia. And afterwards, as on desirous of seeing other parts of the country, I went over from Aleppo to Antioch, which is thence 60 English miles, and from thence went down to Tripoli, where going aboard a small vessel, I arrived at Joppa, and traveled to Rama, Lycia, Casa, Jerusalem, Bethlehem, to the River Jordan, and the sea or lake of Sodom, and returned back to Joppa, and from thence by sea to Tripoli, of which places, because many others have long discourses, I surcease to write.' On December 22, 1587, he embarked at Tripoli for England, and 'arrived in safety here in the river Thames with divers English merchants, 26 March 1588, in the Hercules of London, which was the richest ship of English merchant goods that was ever known to come into this realm.' A large part of these riches appear to have belonged to ELDRED.

"He was now a wealthy man, and, having capitol at his disposal, accumulated a large fortune. In 1597 he bought the Manor of Great Saxham in Suffolk, and built a large house, which came to be popularly known as "Nutmeg Hall". He continued, however, to reside chiefly in London, engaged in multiferous business. When the East Indies Company was started, he was a large subscriber, was a member of the first Court of Directors, and for many years took a prominent part in its affairs. He was also, during the reign of James I, a contractor and commissioner for the sale of lands, a farmer of customs, and the holder of a patent for the pre-emption of tin. He died at Great Saxham in 1632, and was buried there in the Church on the 8th of December.

"His Eldest son was born in June 1590, so that he presumably married shortly after his return from the Levant. His wife was Mary, daughter of Thomas Revett, of Rishangles in Suffolk, by whom he had a large family."

The first born son died in infancy; but the second, REVETT, grew up, was made a Baronet in 1641, and died without issue in 1653, when the estate of Great Saxham passed to the family of John Eldred, Revett's next brother.

This became extinct in 1745, when the property was sold. 'Nutmeg Hall' was burnt down in 1779; the present hall was built by the new proprietors in the closing years of the century. In the church of Great Saxham there is a monument to the memory of John Eldred erected by his son Revett; also a bust with a mural tablet bearing the inscription:

"The Holy Land so called I have seene,
And in the Land of Babilon have beene,
But in that Land where glorious Saints doo live
My soul doth crave of Christ a roome to give."

(John Eldred's Journal of his Voyage to Tripoli is given in Hakluyt's Principle Navigations (1599) II:268. Some interesting letters in connection with it are in Purchas His Pilgrimms, II:1644.)

In 1597 John Eldred purchased for three thousand pounds the manor and advowson of Great Saxham from Sir Thomas Kytson and Elizabeth his wife, "and the same were limited to him for life, remainder to Rivet Eldred, his elder son and heir apparent, in tail male, remainder to John Eldred, his younger son, in fee."

"John Eldred, of the Clothworker's Company, and Aldorman of the city of London, was an enterprising Levant merchant, whose voyage in 1583 to Tripolie, and travels thence to Babylon, are described in Hackluyt's Collection of Voyages.

"In 1592 he had a grant of arms", (Grant by Sir William Dethick dated June 10, 1592. --College of Arms.) "Or, on a bend ragule, Sable, three besents, a martlet for difference. Great, an Arabian's head couped proper, bearded and crined Sable, tied about with a band, and the pendant Argent, the ends gemelly, and fringes Gules. In the grant he is described as fourth son of John Eldred of Buckenham in Norfolk, son of John Eldred of Knatshall in Suffolk, son of William, who was son of John Eldred of Knatshall. His wife was Mary, daughter of Thomas Rivet of Rishangles in Suffolk, by whom, (who died in childbed in 1613) he had a numerous issue. He made his will on the 8th of October 1630; desiring, if he died in Suffolk, to be buried at Great Saxham, but if in London, to be buried in the church of Basinghall (Bassishaw), where his wife was buried, and in which parish he had lived many years. To his son and heir apparent, Rivet Eldred, he devised his manor of Great Saxham, and all his lands in Suffolk, Norfolk, Lincolnshire, and elsewhere; and confirmed to him a sum of money vested in the testator's sons-in-law, Robert Henley and Miles Corbet, and John Eldred the younger, ... and after pecuniary legacies to his daughters, Ann, wife of Rivet Eldred, and Mary Corbet, and ten pounds to the poor of Great Saxham, he gave the residue to his son Rivet Eldred, and appointed him executor of his will (proved 4th Jan. 1622-3). His death occurred at Great Saxham, where he was interred on the 8th December 1632.

"Sir Rivet Eldred, the eldest surviving son and heir, was created a baronet on the 29th January 1641. He married Ann, daughter of John Blakwey (published 21st May 1652), of the county of Salop, by whom he had no issue, and dying in London, was interred in the family-vault in the church of St. Michael Bassishaw, according to the desire expressed in his will. The will is dated the 9th December 1643, and confirms a settlement, dated the 8th June in the 14th year of Charles I, under which ... all his lands were limited to himself and Ann his wife in tail, remainder to their heirs, with power of revocation. And the testator gave to every one of his two brothers and three sisters who should be living at his decease, fifty pounds for mourning, which,he says, was all he intended to leave them, desiring his wife on their love not to give them any thing more. And bequeathing one hundred pounds to the poor of Great Saxham, and for the repairing and beautifying of the church, the remainder he gave to his wife, and appointed her sole executrix.

"Lady Eldred, who became the wife of Thomas Arnold, Alderman of London, generously gave the estate back to her first husband's family at her death. Under her will, dated 6th June 1671, made a few days before her decease, John, grandson and heir of John Eldred, next brother and heir of (Sir) Rivet Eldred, became seized of the manor." (St. Michael Bassishaw Parish Registers, (Harl. 73), p. 107.)

She was buried at Great Saxham, Suffolk, June 23, 1742, age 72, so was born in 1670.

Under the will of (Lady) Anne Eldred, widow of (Sir) Rivett Eldred, John, grandson and heir of John Eldred, next brother and heir of (Sir) Rivett Eldred, became seized of the manor of Great Saxham, and held his first court there September 10, 1672.

Children of John Eldred and Elizabeth Hervey:

I CHARITY, chr. 16 Aug. 1688, Great Saxham, Suffolk, England.

II DOROTHY, b. 30 Jan. 1689-90 and chr. 19 Feb. 1689-90, Great Saxham.

III JOHN, b. 30 Aug. 1691 and chr. 19 Sep. 1691, Great Saxham; lived at Great Saxham, and was buried there 23 Mar. 1746. He married ANN ....., who was buried there 1 Feb. 1747-8. In 1745, after the death of his mother, Elizabeth Eldred, the Manor and avowson of Great Saxham were sold to Hutchison Mure. (Gage: History of Suffolk, Thingoe Hundred, pp. 106, 109.)

ANN ELDRED, dau. of John Eldred and Mary Rivett, was chr. at St. Michael, Bassishaw, London, 25 Feb. 1598-9. On Oct. 8, 1630 her father, in his will, mentions his son-in-law ROBERT HENLEY. The latter was master of the Bench of the Middle Temple.

The registers of Great Saxham show this baptism: "1625. Mary, dau. of Robert Henley, Esq., and Ann his wife, was baptised Januarie 29." (Ibid., p. 118.)

Children of Robert Henley and Ann Eldred:

I (SIR) ANDREW, b. abt. 1621, at Bramshill, co Southampton; created a Baronet 30 June 1660.

II ROBERT HENLEY, b. abt. 1623, Prothonotary of the Common Bench, grandfather of Robert Henley, custodian of the Great Seal.

III MARY, chr. 29 Jan. 1625-6, Great Saxham, Suffolk, England.

In London Pedigrees and Coats of Arms 1664 and 1687, p. 37, appears the following:

ELDRED

A patten geuen by William Dethick garter the 10th June in the yeare of Queen Eliza. Anne 1592.

ARMS. -- Or, on a Bend Ragulae truncked sa, three besants, a mar tlet gules. The Creast and Arabians head ppr. bearded and coyffed sables, tyed about with a band & the pendant ar., the end gemelie and fringed gules.

John Eldred, of London, gent., the 4th sonne of John Eldred of Buckinham, sonne of John Eldred of Knotsett, sonne of William, who, was the sonne of Nicholas Eldred of Knotsett in the countie of Norff. gent.

It will be noted that this descent differs somewhat from that given by Gage, in that the earliest progenitor is named as NICHOLAS instead of JOHN.

THOMAS ELDRED, of Ipswich, Suffolk, England, was another great world traveler, and undoubtedly a near relative of John Eldred, merchant and traveler, of London and Great Saxham, Suffolk.

Gage, after sketching the history of John Eldred's family adds in a footnote:

"Of this family was THOMAS ELDRED of Ipswich, who sailed round the world with Cavendish the navigator, in 1586, whose voyage is given in Hackluyt, tom. iii. fol. 803. He married MARGERY STUD of Ipswich, and was the father of JOHN ELDRED of Colchester and Olivers, in Essex, who in 1634 had a grant of arms, --Azure, a cross patée fitchée Or; on a chief of the last, three globes of the first. Crest, a triton holding an escallop-shell. In 1802, Craven Ord, Esq., exhibited to the Society of Antiquaries three paintings from Olivers; the first representing a terrestrial globe, with an inscription recording Thomas Eldred's voyage round the world; second, the portrait of an old man, with a ruff, a picked beard, and whiskers, holding in his right hand an equinoctial dial, on which is the date 1620, and above his right shoulder a Jacob's staff, -- the portrait, we apprehend, of the same Thomas Eldred, though it bears some resemblance to the bust of John Eldred in Saxham Church, and is thought to be intended for him; and the third picture, a ship, which no doubt was intended to represent the vessel in which Thomas sailed. We refer our readers to the Appendix of the fifteenth volume of the Archaeologia for an engraving of the portraits, and for further details." (Gage: History of Suffolk, Thingoe Hundred, p. 107, footnote x.)

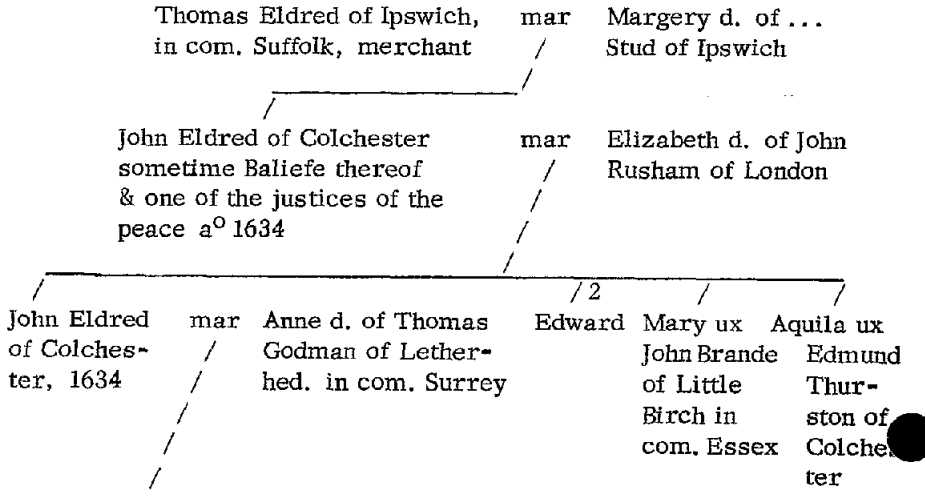
To the entry printed on page 118 of his history: "1622. Thomas Eldred was buried November 5." which occurred at Great Saxham, Gage appends a footnote saying, "Probably the navigator with Cavendish."

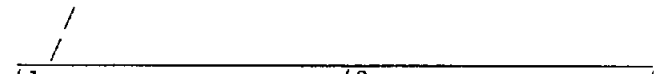
This further notice appears in the Dictionary of National Biography, Vol. XVII, p. 175:

"ELDRED THOMAS, (fl. 1586-1622), a mariner of Ipswich, was with Thomas Cavendish in one or both of his voyages, but not, so far as we know, in any position of authority. In or about 1600 he was appointed to a command in the service of the East India Company (Cal. S. P. East Indies, 7 Nov. 1600), and appears to have continued in that service for some years as commander or factor (ib. 4 March 1607; 1 April 1609). Gage indentifies him with the Thomas Eldred buried at Great Saxham on 5 Nov. 1622; but three years later a Thomas Eldred was at Ipswich, in command of a ship lately come from Denmark (Cal. S. P. Dom. 4 Oct. 1625). Thomas Eldred the mariner was certainly of Ipswich; and there is nothing beyond Gage's conjecture which connects him so closely with Great Saxham. He is said to have been of the same family as John Eldred, but in what degree of relationship does not appear. He was not a brother, but may very probably have been a more or less distant cousin. He married Margaret Stud of Ipswich, and had a son JOHN, alderman of Colchester, who purchased the estate of Olivers in Essex, where a portrait, possibly of Thomas Eldred, is preserved."

The will of THOMAS ELDRED, merchant, Ipswich, Suffolk, was proved in 1624 at the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, 53 Byrde.

The Visitation of Essex, 1634 (Harleian 13), after describing the coat of arms and crest as given previously, shows this chart of his descendants:





John Eldred — Godman Eldred — Olivan (p. 391)

In the Visitation, p. 357, it is recorded that John Brand of Birch parva in com. Essex a 1634, son of John Brand and Susan Lapwith, married MARY, d. JOHN ELDRED of Colchester.

Marriages pertaining to this family are listed in Boyd's Marriage Index for Essex, volumes and pages as listed.

He removed to Colchester, Essex, and was Bailif there and was one of the Justices of the Peace when the Visitation of Essex was taken in 1634. He married at Colchester St. Leonard Church, in 1592, ELIZABETH RUSHAM, daughter of John Rusham of London.

III THE ALDRICH FAMILY of GREAT YARMOUTH and NORWICH

Another family which attained to some prominence in the cities of Great Yarmouth and Norwich in Norfolk, and which retained generally the spelling of ALDRICH for their surname, is recorded in the Visitations of Norfolk for 1563, 1589 and 1613 and also that for 1664. According to these accounts it was first recorded in Yarmouth, a progenitor later settling in Norfolk. The family continued to reside in this vicinity, but some descendants resided in London. (The Visitation of Norfolk, 1563, 1589 and 1613 (Harleian 32), pp. 2-4.)

WILLIAM ALDRICH was born about 1415, and lived at Great Yarmouth, where he was Bailiff in the year 1468. His son was WILLIAM ALDRICH, son of William, born about 1441, probably in Yarmouth. He was Bailiff there in the year 1506. He was the father of the next named.

THOMAS ALDRICH, son of William, was born about 1473 probably in Yarmouth. He removed to the City of Norwich, and became Alderman there. The records of the Guild of St. George, Norwich, 1389-1547, show that THOMAS ALDRED was listed October 13, 1488; THOMAS ALDRYCHE April 6, 1496; THOMAS ALDRICHE March 17, 1497; THOMAS ALDRYCHE April 7, 1525. These spellings show the changing character of the surname at that early date.

He married ELIZABETH WOOD, of Fulborne, Cambridge. They were the parents of sixteen children, twelve of whom died young. The husband and wife are both buried in Our Lady's Chapel in St. Michael's Church in Norwich.

Children of Thomas Aldrich and Elizabeth Wood:

x I GREGORY, b. abt. 1499, of Norwich, Norfolk; mar the dau. of William HAYLES or HALSEY. The will of GREGORY ALDRICHE, citizen and joyner of London, St. Olave in Southwerk, Surrey, was proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury (48 Terwhite) in 1582.

XIV Child, b. abt. 1521; died young.

XV Child, b. abt. 1522; died young.

XVI Child, b. abt. 1524; died young.

GREGORY ALDRICH, eldest son of Thomas Aldrich, Alderman, and his wife, Elizabeth Wood, lived at Norwich. His wife's name is variously given as Miss HAYLES and HALSEY, dau. of William. He may be the Gregory Aldriche whose will was proved at London in 1582. In one early visitation his name is mistakenly given as William Aldriche.

Children of Gregory Aldrich and Miss Hayles or Halsey:

I WILLIAM, b. abt. 1525, Norwich, Norfolk, England.

II LUCY, b. abt. 1527, Norwich; mar JOHN WELD, merchant of Norwich, Freeman there in 1558.

V JOHN, b. abt. 1533, Norwich.

VI THOMAS, b. abt. 1535, Norwich.

THOMAS ALDRICH, 2nd son of Thomas Aldrich, Alderman, and Elizabeth Wood, was born about 1501, Norwich, Norfolk, England. He lived at Mangreen, about four miles southwest of Norwich. His will was proved in the Norwich Consistory Court (Goldingham) Nov. 6, 1559. He married CICELY BISHOP, dau. of Richard Bishop of Yarmouth. Her will was proved at Norwich, (Norfolk 1583-523) October 9, 1585.

JOHN ALDRICH, 3rd son of Thomas Aldrich, Alderman, and Elizabeth Wood, was born abt. 1509, Norwich, Norfolk, England, of which city he became an Alderman. These entries appear in the list of wills proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury:

"1582 JOHN ALDRICHE, alderman, citie of Norwich 27 Terwhite
"1583 JOHN ALDRICHE, citizen and alderman of Norwich 2 Butts."

According to the visitations of Norfolk he evidently married 1st ELIZABETH SOTHERTON, dau. of Nicholas Sotherton, of Norwich. It is not entirely clear how many of the children were born of the 2nd wife. The last born, John, was her child, born after his father's death in 1583. In his will he names as his sisters MARY, SUSAN and FAITH.

Children of John Aldrich and probably Elizabeth Sotherton:

I ELIZABETH, b. abt. 1540, Norwich, Norfolk, England; prob. died young.

II JOHN, b. abt. 1542, Norwich; died young.

III ANNE, b. abt. 1544, Norwich; mar FRANCIS SMALPECE, of Norwich.

RICHARD ALDRICH, son of Thomas Aldrich and Cecily Bishop, was born about 1533, at Mangreen, near Norwich, Norfolk, England. His will was proved in the Norwich, Consistory Court 12 Sept. 1607. He married ELIZABETH STEWARD, dau. of William Steward of Swardeston, Norfolk, four miles southwest of Norwich. She and her parents lived at Goldthorp Hall there.

Children of Richard Aldrich and Elizabeth Steward:

I THOMAS, b. abt. 1559, Mangreen, Norfolk, England; will proved 8 March 1665; died without issue.

JOHN ALDRICH, son of John Aldrich and Faith Steward, was born posthumously in 1589, after his father's death. He married ANNE BACON, dau. of Edmond Bacon, of Hassett, Suffolk, England.

The will of JOHN ALDRICH "of Harleham, near Norwich, gent.," was dated 10 March 1628-9 and proved 4 Oct. 1630. A codicil was dated 14 Aug. 1630, so his death fell between the last two dates. He bequeaths to the poor of Morley, St. Peters and of St. Oseyes, Essex; to his sisters MARY ANGUISH, & SUSAN GILBERT; to his brother John Rowlys; "my son THOMAS, executor, my manor of Frowick and lands in Chich St. Oseyes, Essex; my son MICHAEL (under 22) lands in Morleys, Deepsham & Destropp, Norf.; my manor of Earlham, Norwich & Higham; my daughters ANNE ALDRICH (under 18) and ELIZABETH lands in Felmingham, Norf.; purchased of my sister FAITH ROBINSON, etc.; copyheads in Essex; my brothers JOHN GILBERT and JOHN RAWLEY. Mary Aldrich, daughter of THOMAS ALDRICH of Mangreene (Will proved in Norwich Consistory Court 24 July 1680) married CHARLES SUCKLING of Bracondale, High Sheriff of Norfolk in 1660. His monumental inscription is at Towse. He died 15 July 1666, being the son of Charles Suckling and Mary Drewry[9] of Alysham, bur. at Woodton, 9 June 1621. Their issue is given.

IV THE ALRED - ALURED FAMILY of YORKSHIRE

On the preceeding pages it was seen that the earliest ALDRED found on record was ROGER ALDRED of Moulton, Norfolk, England in 1236. From there the family may be followed in outline as it spread westward, south and north in the succeeding centuries. We now trace one branch that migrated north into Yorkshire, settling at Charterhouse in Hull.

(SIR.) WILLIAM ALDRED, son of Richard Aldred, alias Alred, was born in 1433; and became a soul priest at Diss, living there in 1487, Henry W. Aldred in his Suffolk Records, p. 51, states that ROGER ALURED or ALRED, of Tannington, Suffolk, was probably a descendant of (Sir) William Aldred.

How this came about may be indicated by the following:

ROGER ALDRED of Bruisyard, near Framlingham, Suffolk, purchased an estate there in 1500 belonging to the town of Diss, Norfolk. The will of ROBERT ALDRED of Bruseyard was proved at Ipswich between 1506-1513 (IV:55). That of KATHERINE ALLDRED of Bruisyard was proved at the same court between 1506-1536 (V:312). That of JOHN ALDRED of Diss was proved in the same period (VI:12). Another record states that in 1525 the will of JOHN ALRED of Dysse was proved at Norwich (187 Briggs). Succeeding entries follow showing the changing spelling of the name.

1522 GEORGE ELDRED & Barbara Buskard mar at Diss.
1561 MARGARET ALDRED & Robert Chilver mar at Diss.
1564 ANNES ALDRED & Roger Clifton mar at Tannington.
1565 MARGARET ALDRED & Ewin Brown mar at Diss.
1566 ELIZABETH ALDRED & Henry Earl mar at Diss.
1568 JOHN ALDERED & Elizabeth Smith mar at Bruisyard.
1572 ROBERT ALDRED & Philip Neale mar at Diss.
1575 THOMAS ALDRED & Elizabeth Baxter mar at Diss.
1580 MARY ALDRED & Edward Leak mar at Diss.
1581 WILLIAM ELDRED & Ann Cockeril mar at North Lopham.
1600- MARGERY ALDRED & Roger Harvey mar at Bruisyard.
1653-1656 JOHN ALDRED, son, yoeman of Disse, Norfolk, made his will (proved P. C. C.)

Tannington is but a scant 10 miles from Diss; it is only four miles from Bruisyard.

THE ALLRED FAMILY IN AMERICA

According to the Visitation of Suffolk, 1561, ROGER ALDRED of Lopham, co. Norfolk (4 1/2 miles from Diss) married Cecylle, dau. of Wm. Latymer, of Freston, co. Suffolk, gent. He was identical with the ROGER ALURED or ALRED of Tannington, Suffolk, mentioned above, who stands at the head of the pedigree of the Yorkshire family.

Some descendants of the Lancashire family of ALRED or ALDRED claim that their family of record since about 1561 at Monton near Eccles and Deane in Lancashire, is also of this same extraction, being of common descent with the East Riding, Yorkshire Family at Hull, "... from a living descendant of that (Lancashire) family, descent is claimed from, or collaterally connected with, the East Riding Aldreds." (Smith: Old Yorkshire, 8:190.)

(Foster: Visitation of Yorkshire, 1587, 1612, p. 144.)

ROGER ALDRED or ALRED, of Lopham, Norfolk, and Tannington, Suffolk, was perhaps the son of ROBERT ALDRED and KATHERINE ALDRED of Bruisyard, Suffolk, whose wills were proved in the period 1506-1536. Robert was evidently of the Diss, Norfolk branch of the Aldreds. ROGER was born about 1494. He married Cecily Latimer, born about 1498, daughter of William Latimer and Anne Bokinge of Freston, Suffolk. Cicely's mother was from Ashebokinge, Suffolk. (Visitation of Suffolk, 1561, p. 50; Proceedings of the Archiological Institute, XIII: 387-388.)

Children of Roger Aldred and Cecily Latimer:

THE ALLRED FAMILY IN AMERICA

THOMAS ALDRED or ALRED, born about 1520, probably at Tannington, Suffolk, England, son of Roger Alred or Aldred and Cecily Latimer, took up his residence at Charterhouse in Hull or Kingston-upon-Hull, Yorkshire, England. "Thomas Alred, gent., was M. P. for Kingston-upon-Hull in 1557-8, and Mayor of the same place in 1561. He is said to have built and lived in a house in White Friar Gate, Hull, which was afterwards occupied by his grandson - Thomas Alured." (Most of the material to follow on this family is taken from the excellent article contributed by William Duncombe Pink, of Leigh, Lancs., in the YORKSHIRE GENEALOGIST, Vol. I: pp. 1-12.) He married ELLINOR CONSTABLE, dau. and co-heir of Ralph Constable and his wife Joane, dau. and co-heiress of Ezekias Clifton. Ralph Constable was the 2nd son of (Sir.) John Constable, of Halsham, by his wife, the daughter of (Sir) Thomas Metham.

Children of Thomas Aldred or Alred and Ellinor Constable:

He entered as a student at Gray's Inn, 11 Aug., 1628, as "son and heir of Henry Alured, of Charterhouse, juxta-Hull, co. Yorks, armiger." He sat as M.P. for Heyden in the Short Parliament of 1640, and in the Long Parliament of 1640-53. He was first a Captain of Horse under the Earl of Bedford, and afterwards a Colonel in the Parliamentary Army. He was one of the Judges who tried King Charles I, and signed the Warrant for the Execution; hence becoming the celebrated "Col. Alured, the Regicide." He died in 1659, shortly before the restoration of Charles II to the throne; nevertheless his name was put in the Act of Attainder that his property might be forfeited. He married, first, at Bossall, 17 November, 1631, MARY DARLEY, daughter of Richard Darley, of Buttercrambe, Yorkshire. He married, second, MARY ARNOLD, of London.

In 1642 he had a license to marry: "Matthew Alured, Gent., of Sculcoates, and Catherine Helthorp, Widow, of Walkington. To marry at either." He lived afterwards at Beverley, Yorkshire. He was a Colonel of Foot in the Army of the Commonwealth, Commander-in-Chief of the Forces designed for the Islands of Moola and Skey, in or neere Scotland, 1650. He served as M. P. for Heyden in the Parliament called by Richard Cromwell in 1658-9. In Nov. 1668 he was named administrator of the goods, etc., not yet administered of his uncle Thomas Alured, of Blackfriars. He was sole Executor to the will of his daughter Dorothy Alured in 1673. He was still living in Nov. 1691, when he was party to a bond.

He was cousin in the first degree and next of kin to Thomas Alured of Blackfriars, on 1 Aug. 1668. He seems to have died shortly afterwards, for on 16 Nov., 1668 a new Commission for the same purpose was granted to his uncle, Matthew Alured. On the same date an Administration to John Alured, late of Beverley, co. York, was granted to JANE ALURED, the Relict.

V THE ALDRED-ALDRIDGE FAMILY of WORSTEAD, NORFOLK

The first of this family recorded as living at Worstead was REV. HENRY ALDRED, who was Vicar there in the year 1553.

Blomsfield, in his monumental History of Norfolk, Vol. 5, pp. 1455-1456, says the town of Worstead is situated in a flat country. Worsted stuffs are said to have taken their name from this town from being first manufactured there. The church is dedicated to St. Mary. He speaks of the priory of Bromholm, and of its dissolution on 26 May, 6th year of Edward VI (1553), adding:

"On the dissolution of the priory, the manor belonging to it, with the rectory, and the patronage of the vicarage, were granted to the dean and chapter of Norwich; and the vicarage is valued at 10 l. per ann. -- Mr. HENRY ALDRED vicar. (p. 1456)

Henry Aldred may have been father of the next named. It should be understood that what follows is only a tentative line, which can undoubtedly be amplified and even revised when the search of the Worstead, villages about six miles apart, as shown by these entries:

"Henry Aldred Clerke then Curate here and Margrett Browne were married 4 day of June 1599." (Marsham P. R., p. 31.)

"Henry Aldred, Vicar of Worstede, resigned 1603, then became Vicar of Ruehall, presented by Sir Edward Clere." (Henry W. Aldred: Suffolk Records, p. 54.)

Probable children of Rev. Henry Aldred:

x I JOHN ALDRIDGE, b. abt. 1558, of Worstead, Norfolk, England; mar there in 1583, AGNES ROLFE or ROFFE.

II (REV.) HENRY ALDRED, b. abt. 1564, vicar of Marsham, Worstead, and Rushall; mar at Marsham 4 June 1599, MARGARET BROWNE.

JOHN ALDRIDGE, probably son of the elder Rev. Henry Aldred, of Worstead, Norfolk, was born about 1558. He married at Worstead, in the year 1583, AGNES ROLFE or ROFFE. It would appear that perhaps John Aldridge had traveled, and his wife, Ann (Agnes and Ann were often used interchangeably), thinking him dead, remarried to Edmund Bortham in 1595. For the record of Bishop Redman's Visitation of the Diocese of Norwich, 1597, contains under Worstead this presentment: "ANN ALDRIGE. For having two husbands living." (Norfolk Rec. Soc. Pub., Vol. XVIII, p. 76.)

A NICHOLAS ROFF married Cecilia Carr at Worstead in 1570; and Margaret Roff married Roger Forman there in 1568. These were probably relatives of AGNES ROFFE who married John Aldridge. (Boyd's Marriage Index for Norfolk, 1538-1600, Vol. I:139; Vol. 2:138.)

Probable children of John Aldridge and Agnes Rolfe:

I EMMA, b. abt. 1591, Worstead, Norfolk, England; mar there in 1612, BARTHUM SEEK.

x II CLEMENT, b. abt. 1601, Worstead; mar there in 1626, SUSAN BOSWELL.

CLEMENT ALDRIDGE or ALDRICH, was born about 1601, Worstead, Norfolk, England, probably the son of John Aldridge and Agnes Rolfe or Roffe. He was married at Worstead in 1626, as CLEMENT ALDRICH to

SUSAN BOSWELL.

He may have gone to Northumberland County, Virginia, for a visit or for a short time. At any rate, several of his sons did go, if the evidences from the records are correctly interpreted.

His wife may have been the daughter of Christopher Boswell and Margery Lambert, who were married at Worstead in 1577; and a sister of Edmund Boswell who married there Susan Crompton in 1612.

Probable children of Clement Aldridge and Susan Boswell:

I. THOMAS ELDRED or ALDRIDGE, b. abt. 1627, Worstead, Suffolk, England; an early headright to Virginia; appearing on the records of Northumberland County, Virginia, as will be shown later.

x II GEORGE ALDRIDGE, b. abt. 1629, Worstead; will proved in Talbot Co., Md., 16 Dec. 1679; mar ANN .....

III WILLIAM ALDRIDGE, b. abt. 1635, Worstead; d. 1662, in Northumberland Co., Virginia.

x IV CLEMENT ALDRIDGE, b. abt. 1640, Worstead; will proved 19 Jan. 1698-9, Northumberland Co., Va.; mar at Worstead in 1668, ELIZABETH TILL or TILLES.

V ALICE ALDRED or ALDRIDGE, b. abt. 1648, Worstead; mar there in 1673, SAMUEL PICROFT.

THE ALLREDS IN AMERICA

THE ALDRED-ALDRIDGE FAMILY of VIRGINIA and MARYLAND

THOMAS ELDRED or ALDRIDGE, probably a son of Clement Aldridge and Susan Boswell, and born about 1627, at Worstead, Norfolk, England, appears early in the records of Northumberland County, Virginia.

"22 9th 1659. It appears to ye Court yt THOMAS ELDRED standeth indebted unto Majr George Colclough ye sume of one thousand pounds of Tobacco and also one halfe sweet sented & due by bill also from Martine Cole. It is therefore ordered that the sd debt unto the sd Majr Colclough with costs of Suit."

"It is ordered by this Court that an attachment shall be awarded agt the Estate of Martine Cole at ye suit of THOMAS ELDRED for ye sume of one thousand pounds of Tobco and Casks which hee the sd Cole received of the sd EDRED unlawfully, hee havving also the sd debt before unto Majr George Colclough." (Northumberland Co, Va., Order Book, 2:227)

On 20 April 1664 John Lee received a grant of 4700 acres of land for the transportation into the Colony of Virginia of ninety-four persons by his father, Col. Richard Lee. Included among the headrights named was "THOMAS ARYLDRIDGE." (Ibid., 2:385.)

On 6 Oct., 1658 Richard White, Cooper, Evan Davis and Samuel Mann were granted 1000 acres in the freshes of Rappahannock River for the transportation of twenty persons into Virginia, including THOMAS ELDRIDGE. (Virginia Cavaliers and Pioneers, pp. 200, 381.)

On 24 Oct. 1650 Sir Thomas Luntsford, Knight and barronett, received an appropriate grant for transporting 65 persons, among them THOMAS ALUDGE (or ALDRIDGE). (Ibid.)

One or more of these may refer to Thomas Eldred or Aldridge named above. It is probable that Thomas removed to Maryland or returned to England.

On 27 Mar. 1672 THO: ELDRIDGE was a headright of John Wallop. (Minutes of the Virginia Council and General Court, p. 300.)

An entry under date of 8 Oct. 1662 contains this statement: "And the sd Isaack Abrahams declared he deliued the said letter and Rowle of lawes well Sealed to Tho: ELDRED which THOMAS ELDRED acknowledged to be true. And the said Thomas Eldred declares he deliued the said letter & Rowle of lawes well sealed to John Boulton." (Maryland Archives, 41: 573.)

GEORGE ALDRIDGE, probably son of Clement Aldridge and Susan Boswell, was born about 1629, presumably at Worstead, Norfolk, England. Like Thomas he appears early in the records of Northumberland Co., Virginia. (GEO. ALDRIDGE was a headright of Rd Span, 20 Feb. 1650-1 (Va. Colonial Abstracts, Vol. 20, p. 115)).

He is first mentioned there 29 July 1658, in the following instrument:

"George Alridge Assmt to Francis Bickley

On 2nd Nov. 1658 Mathew Willcocks assigned his right, title and interest in the above land to GEORGE ALDREDGE. Peter Ashton was a witness. 15:6 (Ibid.)

Following this disposal of their land in Northumberland Co., Virginia, GEORGE ALDRIDGE and his wife ANNE are next found in Talbot Co., Maryland. GEORGE ALDRIDGE was in Maryland as early as 1663. In Liber 6 folio 171 in the Land Office of Maryland this is recorded. (Maryland Genealogical Bulletin, 1:23.)

On 22 March 1665-6 GEORGE ALDRIDGE was summoned as a witness to testify in court. (Maryland Archives, 59:10.) This was either in St. Mary's or Calvert County.

WILLIAM ALDRIDGE, probably son of Clement Aldridge and Susan Boswell, was presumably born about 1635, at Worstead, Norfolk, England. It would appear that he followed his elder brothers to Northumberland Co., Virginia. Upon arrival of the vessel the accident occurred described below. This account is taken from the pages of an old County record book, part of the pages being worn away.

"20 Oct. 1662. The examinations above mentconed were Recorded. (Northumberland County Record Book, 15:84a-85.)

On 20 January 1663-4, Captain Peter Ashton received a grant of 1100 acres of land for transportation of twenty-two persons into this Colony. Included among the names was that of WILLIAM ALDRIDGE.

(Northumberland County Order Book, 2:370.)

There was a second WILLIAM ALDRIDGE in the Northumberland County, for on 20 June 1677 "This day the last Will and testament of WILLIAM ALDRIDGE was proved by ye oaths of Peter Maxwell and others, witnesses of said Will." (Ibid., 3:289.)

This last may be identical with the WILLIAM ELDRIDGE, of Anne Arundel County, Maryland, whose will was dated 11 March 1665, and proved 2 June 1677. He bequeathed to Samuel Lane, administrator, and William Sisick, his entire estate, real and personal. (Maryland Wills, 1:285; Baldwin: Abstracts 1:39.)

There is a record in Talbot County Court that "WILLIAM ALDERAGE, dec'd. owed Jonathan Hopkinson 988 lbs tobacco, 21 January 1667-8."

(Maryland Archives, 54:416.)

CLEMENT ALDRIDGE, probably son of Clement Aldridge or Aldrich and Susan Boswell, was born in Worstead, Norfolk, England, about the year 1636. He evidently followed his older brothers to America. He married at Worstead in 1668, Elizabeth Till or TILLES. That same year he appears on the records of Northumberland County, Virginia (unless this 1668 entry below refers to his father Clement.)

"7 Apr. 1668 Mr. Rich: Haskins agt Clem^{t} Aldridge — Whereas it appears that this Co^{t} y^{t} CLEMENT ALDRIDGE stands indebted to Rich: Haskins in ye sume of six hundred eighty one pounds of Tobacco & Cask it is ordered that ye sd CLEM^{t} ALDRIDGE forthwth pay ye sd sume unto ye sd Mr. Haskins."

(Northumberland Co. Order Book, 3:35.)

The next entry in the same year, reading: Aldridge ag^{t} Wathen, at the next Court." (Ibid., p. 36.)

Then follows a break of a few years, when this entry appears:

"29 Jan. 1670-1. ALDRIDGE ag^{t} Pignall. Wm Pignall confesseth judgment for ye psent payment of seven hundred ninety pounds of Tobacco and Cask with Costs, etc." (Ibid., 3:111.)

It was during this period that most of the children of Clement and Elizabeth Aldridge were born, in what was then known as Bowtracy and Fairfield parishes, embracing the section of Northumberland County north of the Great Wicocomico River (later shortened to Wicomico.) In 1698 those two parishes were united to form the Parish of St. Stephen. Fortunately the old Parish Registers of St. Stephen's Parish have been preserved, and is now at the State Library at Richmond, Virginia. It is in a mutilated condition, the edges of some of the first pages in the volume being worn and wasted away at the edges. Yet, the facts contained therein are priceless, imperfect though they be.

On page 3 are recorded these entries of the children of CLEMENT ALDREDGE:

.....ent Aldridge, son of Clement was borne Sep.....
.....d Aldredge, daughter of D^{o} was borne Mar.....
.....ce Aldridge, daughter of D^{o} was borne Oct.....

.....m Aldredge, son of D° was borne Feb.....
....ace Aldredge, son of D° was borne S.....
....ohn Aldredge, son of D° was borne Feb.....

(The next entry in point of date and alphabetical sequence is 1696, on page 4. Intervening year dates are missing.) (Northumberland Co. Births and Deaths, 1650-1810, p. 3.)

Since the parents were married in 1668, it is presumable that the children were born between the years 1669-1679. Later records speak of Clement Aldridge, Jr., a witness in Court in 1691 and of a William Aldridge who was an adult about 1700. Other sons were evidently ISAAC and JOHN; and one of the daus. ALICE. the other name may possibly have been WINIFRED.

Other references to Clement Aldridge, the father, are found at intervals. Since Court records are about all that are preserved today, a fire having later destroyed the Courthouse and many of the records, naturally court actions predominate. But even for these we are grateful, for they reveal some important facts.

2 April 1677 — CLEM^{T} ALRIDGE was a witness to the will of David Lindsay, Minister of God now in Virginia. (Northumberland Co. Record Book, 16:17.)

17 April 1678 Wm Keen agt Aldridge. — Whereas Clement Aldridge was arrested to this Court at the suit of William Keen for the sum of six hundred and forty pounds of Tobacco & Casks and not appearing Judgment is granted unto said Keen ag^{t} the Sherriffe for the said sum According to law. (Northumberland Co. Record Order Book, 3:339.)

21 Aug. 1678 — This day Graves Garrett son of Thomas Garrett (deed) did acknowledge an indenture wherein he did oblige himselfe to serve CLEM^{T} ALDRIDGE to learn ye trade of a Joyner. It is ordered that the sd Graves serve his sd Master according to the terms of the sd indenture. (Ibid., 4:1.) (In 1683 John Julian entered suit against the "estate of Graves Gerrard for 400 lbs. tob. (4:203.) "This is interesting as showing an early appearance of this Julian name, later closely associated with ALLRED'S in North Carolina.

Unfortunately this Will was destroyed in the fire at the Courthouse. It would undoubtedly have been of great aid.

INTRODUCTION

THE TILL or TILLES FAMILY of NORFOLK, ENGLAND

This family from whom the wife of CLEMENT ALDRIDGE was descended, was one of antiquity in Norfolk, England. (Rye, in his well-known NORFOLK FAMILIES, p. 909, preserves these mentions:

Rogers, Mr. Roddam & Jno. Kent. Due for transportation of 2 persons: Dorcas Hinton, JNO: ROFFE (or Rosse)." (Cavaliers and Pioneers, p. 460.)

RICHARD TULL was aheadright of Col. Wm. Waters, Accomack Co. 12 June 1664. (Ibid., p. 517.)

CLEMENT ALDRIDGE, Jr., son of Clement Aldridge and Elizabeth Till or Tilles, was born in September, about 1669, in Northumberland County, Virginia. His birth is recorded in the mutilated record of what was later St. Stephen's Parish. The earliest recorded reference of him yet found after his birth is where he appears as a witness in court.

"20 Nov. 1691. CLEMT ALDRIDGE JUN^{R} having attended three days to give in his Evidence in the Difference depending between Tho: Hughlett plt. & Mich^{ll} Dermott Deft on the behalf of the sd Def^{t}. It is ordered that he be allowed for ye same according to act." (Northumberland Co. Order Book, 4:573.)

The next entry may refer to him or to his father Clement:

"29 May, 1698. William Allen bringing suit against CLEMENT ALDRIDGE for four thousand pounds of tobacco the said ALDRIDGE prayed an injunction to stop the proceedings at Common Law to a hearing in Chancery which is granted him and ordered that ALDRIDGE file his Bill at the next Court." (5:44.)

Occasionally the spelling ARLEDGE appear instead of that of ALDRIDGE or ALDREDGE as witness:

"22 July 1699. Alexander Punye (or Runye) being returned ... at the suit of CLEMENT ARLEDGE for ten pounds sterling and failing to appear to answer the said suite An Attachment is awarded the said ARLEDGE agt the said Punyes Estate for the said summe of Tenn Pounds Sterlg & Coats returnable to the next Court." Upon motion of Mary Donaldson Exectx, a Probate is granted her of the Last Will and Testament of her decsd husband, John

Donaldson, the will being proved by oath of Edw^{d} Williams & Claud Tulles witnesses thereunto & is Recorded." (Northu. C. Record Order Book, 4:829) Again "20 April 1699. Whereas MARY DONALDSON brought suit against David Straughan Adm^{r} of William Parker dec^{d} and hath failed to appear a non Suit is therefore granted. (Ibid., 5:13.) She was married to CLEMENT ALDRIDGE between this latter date and 18 Mar. 1702-3, when the suit of "CLEMENT ARLEDGE and MARY his wife" vs. Dan^{ll} McCarty was dismissed. (5:243.)

Other pertinent entries regarding him follow, most of which are from Court records.

21 Sept. 1699. Whereas in July Court Last CLEMENT ARLEDGE obtayned order for an Attachment against Alexander Puny upon the returne of a non ^{est} Juventies for Tenn pounds Ster^{g} with Costs which Attachmt issued and returned Executed on soe much in the hands of Henry Dawson and whereas the said ARLEDGE hath made out his said Claime to be justly due Capt William Jones late Sheriff his Account only Excepted which the Plt acknowledgeth to be paid by the said Puny for the Plaintiffe Judgment is therefore granted the said ARLEDGE against the said Dawson for the pfect payment of the said Debt (the said Jones his Accounts being first deducted therefrom) that the said Dawson pay the remainder of the said Ten Pounds Ster) out of the said Punyes Estate Attached as aforesaid unto the said Arledge with Costs als Exex. (5:67)

CLEMENT ALDRIDGE was A Grand Juror 28 April 1701. CLEMENT ARLEDGE was a juror 22 May 1701. (4:161, 165) 15 Oct. 1701. CLEMENT ARLEDGE was a juror 22 June 1704. On the same day it was recorded: "Whereas CLEMENT ALDREDGE was arrested at the suite of James Barnes & Symon Lynn Executors of the Last Will & Testamt of Symon Robins deced. for three hundred pounds of Tobacco and hath failed to appear to Answr the said suite ordr it therefore granted the said Burns & Linn in their said Quality agt James Waddy Sheriffe for the said sume according to Law.

"22 Feb. 1704-5. Whereas it appeares to the Court that CLEMT ARLEDGE stood indebted unto Simon Robins deced. by Bill under his hand and seal dated the fifteenth of Augt 1699 three hundred pounds of tobacco judgment granted his executors agt the said Arledge." (5:322)

Mention is made of land "one chaine ffive links from CLEMT ALDREDGE Corner" on 23 Feb. 1704-5. (5:326)

This next entry from the Court Records shows how the surname was spelled two different ways in the same notation.

"17 Aug. 1705. WHEREAS CLEMENT ALDRIDGE was arrested at the suit of Rodham Kenner for ffive hundred ninety nine pounds of Tobacco & hath failed to appear to answr the sd suite Order is therefore granted the sd Kenner agt Mr James Waddy Sheriffe for the sd same according to Law.

"An attachment is awarded James Waddy Sheriffe agt CLEMENT ARLEDGE for this same." (5:356)

Clement Aldridge, Jr. died between 20 Sept. 1705 and 20 March 1705-6, when administration on his estate was granted his widow Mary.

"20 Sept. 1705. John Linsey arrested at the Suite of CLEMENT ALDRIDGE" for an obligation of 40 lbs Tobacco; and an attachment was ordered against him. (5:366) This case of CLEMENT ARLEDGE AGAINST John Linsey was dismissed at the Court held 20 Aug. 1706. (5:395)

"20 Mar. 1705-6. "17 Apr 1706. MARY ARLEDGE having psented an Inventory and Appriasement of the Estate of her Deced Husband CLEMENT ARLEDGE to this Court upon her Oath the same is Admitted to Record." (5:378)

Finally on 23 Nov. 1706 the suit of Richard Lowe agt MARY ARLEDGE Admrx of CLEMT ARLEDGE with Will Annext, deced, Dismist. By this date she was the wife of Jonathan Palfrey.

"Whereas Jonath Palfry and MARY his wife Admx with ye will annext of CLEMT ARLEDGE deced were arrested at ye suite of Moore ffauntleroy & Wm ffauntleroy for ffive hundred & ffive pounds of Tobacco and hath ffailed to appeare to Answ the sd Suite Attachment against JONATHAN PALFREY & MARY his wife." "23 Nov. 1706. Captain John Cralle agt JONATHAN PALFREY & MARY his wife late MARY ARLEDGE Admrx with the Will Annext of CLEMENT ARLEDGE deced. Dismist." (5:419)

There is no record yet found of children of Clement Aldridge, Jr. Unfortunately his will was destroyed in the court house fire referred to in the following entry, when the deed was brought in for recording, probably in response to an invitation to do so:

"15 Aug. 1711. CLEMENT ARLEDGE & wife MARY, formerly wife of John Donaldson, deed to Patrick Maly (already quoted) and signed

CLEMENT ARLEDGE
MARY M ARLEDGE seale signum

dated 17 July 1703, and acknowledged in Court on the 21st, was brought into court by Patrick Maly "the Record being burnt" and the original deed was recorded "upon condicon the sd Deed & Endorsment are admitted to record" since the first recorded copy "being burnt with the office." (Northumberland Co. Record Book, 17:128.)

WILLIAM ALDRIDGE, son of Clement Aldridge and Elizabeth Till or Tilles, was born in February, about the year 1675, in Northumberland County, Virginia. The day and year of his birth record are obliterated from the old St. Stephen's Parish Register, now preserved in the Virginia State Library, Richmond, Virginia. The birth of one son is recorded in this same register to William:

"...n sone of Wm Aldredge was born May 16 170.." (p. 3) This was evidently the son JOHN who was under 21 in 1724, as mentioned in his father's will.

The evidences to follow have been gleaned from the Northumberland County Order Books and Records.

"15 Apr. 1702. Andrew Bashaw having this day in Court Acknowledged a Conveyance of Sixty Acres of Land more or less to WILLIAM ARLEDGE the same is admitted to Record." (Northum. Co. Order Book, 5:198.)

"19 Mar. 1702-3. Whereas WILLIAM ALDRIDGE was arrested at the suit of Wm. Cornish & David Straughan for four hundred and seventy pounds of Tobacco and hath failed to appear to Answr the said suite order is therefore granted to the sd Cornish & Straughan agt Mr James Waddy Sherr. for the said sume according to law.

"An attachment is awarded the Sheriffe agt WM ALDREDGE for ffour hundred seventy pounds of Tobacco and Casks returnable to the next Court." (5:244)

William's first wife was ALICE ....., living at this time.

"19 May 1703. WM ARLEDGE & ALICE his wife having this day in Court acknowledge A Deed for Sixty acres of Land more or less to Mrs. Hannah Nealy ye sd deed is Recorded." (5:246)

"21 May 1703. Suit of William Cornish and David Straughan agt WILLIAM ALDREDGE was dismissed." (5:252)

"20 July 1704. Judgment is granted John Garner admnr of Wm Clarke deced agt WM ARLEDGE for ffive hundred and thirty pounds of Tobacco and Casks due by bill under the hand and seale of the said ARLEDGE and one Wm. Hill dated the eight day of June 1700 and seventy two pounds of Tobo due by Acct and ordered hee pay the same unto the sd Garner in his sd Quality with Costs." (5:304) On Apr. 1705 a similar judgment was given for 577 lbs tobacco.

"20 Sept. 1705. Joseph Humphries was arrested at the suit of WILLIAM ARLEDGE, for 3000 lbs. of Tob. & failed to appear." Attachment ordered. (5:365)

"17 Jan. 1705-6. It is ordered by the County that WILLIAM ARLEDGE forthwith mend the Bridge Comonly called Dawson's Mill Dam and upon his non performance That the Sheriffe sumon him to the next Court to show reasons for his neglect." (5:369)

"17 Sep. 1703, the suit of WILLIAM ARLEDGE against William Jones was dismissed." (5:267)

"17 Mar. 1703-4. The Case of Major Rodman Kenner agt WILLIAM ARLEDGE, continued from the last Court, was dismissed; the Defendent to pay the Costs." (5:284.)

"22 June 1704. Whereas WILLIAM ARLEDGE was arrested at the suite of the County of Westmoreland Admr of the Estate of Wm Clarke decd. for ffive hundred seventy seven pounds of tobo and hath failed to appear to answr the said suite order is therefore granted the said Garner in his Quality agt Mr. James Waddy Sheriff for the said sume according to Law.

"An Attachment is awarded Mr. James Waddy Sherriffe agt WILLIAM ARLEDGE for ffive hundred seventy seven pounds of tobacco and Caske returnable to next Court." (5:296.)

17 August 1705. A prolonged contest of suits began between WILLIAM ALDRIDGE and Captain Richard Haynie, an influential official and one of the Justices of the County Court of this date. The entries read:

"WILLIAM ARLEDG agt Capt. Richard Haynie. "Capt. Richard Haynie agt. WILLIAM ARLEDGE" (5:356.)

"17 July 1706, WILLIAM ARLEDGE against Richard Smith, attachment Dismissed." (5:385.)

"19 July 1706. Richard Haynie agt WILLIAM ARLEDGE, Dismist.

"19 July 1706, WILLIAM ARLEDGE agt. Richard Haynie for debt on account 20 Aug. 1703. 4459 lbs. Tobacco. Judgment for Arledge. Haynie for a hearing before the Governor the 5th day of the next General Court." (5:392.)

"17 April 1706. William Beane Servant to WILLIAM ARLEDGE Complayneing to the Cort that his sd. Master doth not cloath him as he ought to doe. It is ordered that the sd Beane returne home to his Master's service the said ARLEDGE haveing in Court promised to Cloath him fitting for such Servant." (5:378.)

It would appear that Capt. Haynie was incensed at losing the suit on the 19th of July, 1706.

"20 August 1706. Capt. Richard Haynie bringing information to this Court agt. WILLIAM ARLEDGE for the Breach of the Statute against Subordination Ordered the sub sherrieffe of the County take the sd ARLEDGE into Custody & him in safe Custody to keepe until he enter into Bond with good and just security to make his appearance the nxt Court to answer thereunto." (5:395.)

"19 Sept. 1706. Capt. Richard Haynie testifies agt. WILLIAM ARLEDGE for subordination and perjury." (5:397.)

On 22 Nov. 1706 WILLIAM ARLEDGE failed to appear. He was to be summoned to the next Court. On 19 Dec. 1706 "WM ARLEDGE to be summoned to the next Court on the charge Capt. Richard Haynie." (5:426.) He evidently came and pleaded his case, for on 23 May 1707 we read:

"Capt. Richard Haynie asks that trial of his charge be continued to next Court to answer the defendent's plea." (5:454.) The final decision was handed down 20 Aug. 1707. "Court Orders charges prefered by Capt. Richard Haynie agt. WILLIAM ARLEDGE of wilful and corrupt perjury should abate and Ordered the Pltf. to pay Costs." Again the Capt. appealed to the next General Court. (5:478.)

This powerful opponent siezed upon another opportunity to bring suite against William. On 21 Aug. 1707, the next day, "WILLIAM ARLEDGE arrested at suite of Richd. Haynie, Gent. for thirty thousand pounds Tobo failed of appearance suit therefore granted to Mr. Haynie agt. John Lewis security for said ARLEDGE'S appearance." (5:485.)

Finally on 17 Sept. 1707, "Richd Haynie, gent, agt. WM. ARLEDGE continued in Next Court." (5:490, 496.)

William Aldridge was a party to a number of other suits, suing and being sued. One case indicates what his occupation was.

27 Mar. 1706-7. "Whereas WILLIAM ARLEDGE brought an Attacht agt the Estate of Christr Dawson for 3700 lbs Toba, for building a Water Mill" two men were appointed to investigate what part of work sd Arledge did. On 23 May 1707 "WILLIAM ARLEDGE testifies he did most of the work on the mill for Christopher Dawson worth 3400 pounds of Tobacco according to appraisers. Judgment Granted." (5:442, 456.)

On 20 Jan. 1714 Elenr Oliver brought suit against WILLIAM ARLEDGE and having failed of her appearance to prosecute her suit, on the motion of ye said Wm. Arledge a nonsuit is therefore granted him agt. ye pltf. and ordered she pay damages to law with Costs. (Northu. Co. Order Book, 6:52.)

On 23 Sept. 1715, WILLIAM ARLEDGE of Wicomico Parish was fined for absenting himself from Church for two months. One supposition was that he stayed away because he was a Quaker. (Ibid. 6:138.)

WILLIAM ALDRIDGE or ARLEDGE married 2nd. SARAH..... "The inventory of the Estate of WM ALDRIDGE Decd." was presented in Northumberland Co. Court, 20 Jan. 1724, by SARAH ALDRIDGE widoww and relict of Wm Aldridge; 17 Feb. 1724-5. "This inventory of the Estate of WM ARLEDG Decd was Exhibited into Court by SARAH ARLEDGE Execx of the sd Decd and is admitted to Record." (Northumberland Co. Record Book, 19:375.)

William's widow SARAH did not survive him many years. On 19 April 1727 the "Inventory of the Estate of SARAH ARLEDG was presented to court by William Thomas, Richard Marah and Richd Thomas." (Ibid., 20:70a.)

The following record of the division of her estate may indicate which of the children mentioned in the will of William were her own children, and which those of the first wife ALICE.

Division of Arledgy Estate

"Northumberland County SS in Obedience to an order of court held the 18th of June 1729 we the subscribers being appointed to settle the acct between William Thomas executor of Richard Faulks who was Administrator of SARAH ARLEDGE Decd and John Callahan Guardian to ISAAC ARLEDGE and SARAH ARLEDGE we find the Orphan's estates to be five pounds fifteen shillings and four pence halfpenny apiece which said money we have possest the said John Callahan with as Witness

JOHN ALDRIDGE, son of Clement Aldridge and Elizabeth Till or Tilles, was born in February, about 1679, in Northumberland County, Virginia. His birth is recorded in the old St. Stephen's Parish Record of Births, etc., but the day and year of birth are worn away.

There appear to be two possibilities as to what became of him; and both will be given. Evidently he either died in infancy or moved from Northumberland County, as he does not seem to be recorded on any of the extent records there.

The will of JNO ALDRIDGE, dated Dec. 28, 1705; was proved in Bath Co., North Carolina, 2 April 1706. He bequeaths to "My loving wife DOROTY ALLDRIDGE and to my dear Children," his property to be equally divided. Wife DOROTHY executrix. He signs by mark, his name being written JOHN AUDRIDGE. Witnesses: A. Slocumb, Rich'd Smith. Probated at a Court held at the house of Wm. Barrow. (North Carolina Wills, alphabetical, at Raleigh, N. C.; North Carolina Register, 1:165.)

Another JOHN ALDRIDGE lived in New Kent and Hanover Counties, Virginia, much nearer to Northumberland County. But his first appearance there is very early for one born in 1679 or thereabouts.

JOHN ALDRIDGE appears in the Vestry Book of St. Peter's Parish, New Kent County, in the years 1689, 1698 and later. (St. Peters Vestry Book, pp. 10, 11, 74, 75, 53.) He had a negro baptised in 1714, and again in 1713, 1716, 1719.

"JOHN ALDRIDGE Deceased April 16, 1720." (Ibid., p. 53.)

These entries are found in the Vestry Book of St. Paul's Parish, Hanover County, Virginia:

17 Mar. 1711-12. "The Lands of Francis Clarke, Geo: Lovell, Alice Field, Thos: Reynolds, & Richd Melton, Wm. Reynolds, Nich' Pridy, JOHN ALDRIDGE and Fran: Willis, being made one Precinct whereof the said Francis Clarke & George Lovel were appointed oversrs, made this return, processioned According to order, by us the Subscribers being all present, as witness our hands

Francis Clarke Geo: Lovel." (pp. 226, 237-8, 250.)

5 Dec. 1719. "The Lands of Walter Leak, Thos Reynolds, Widd: Lovel, Mrs. Field, Richd. Melton, Wm. Reynolds, Nich Priddy, JOHN ALDRIDGE, and Francis Willis, being one precinct, whereof Walter Leak, and Thos Reynolds were Overseers, who made the return as followeth December ye 5th, 1719 all this land is processioned, by those people that do belong to it, and those that was for to see it done, but there is one piece of land that doth belong to David Holt, lying between Lovell, and our bounds, that is to Procession yet, we had no orders to Procession it. Thos Reynolds, Richd Melton, Robt Terral, Nicho Priddy, JNO ALDRIDGE, Edwd Willis, Mrs. Field. (p. 259)

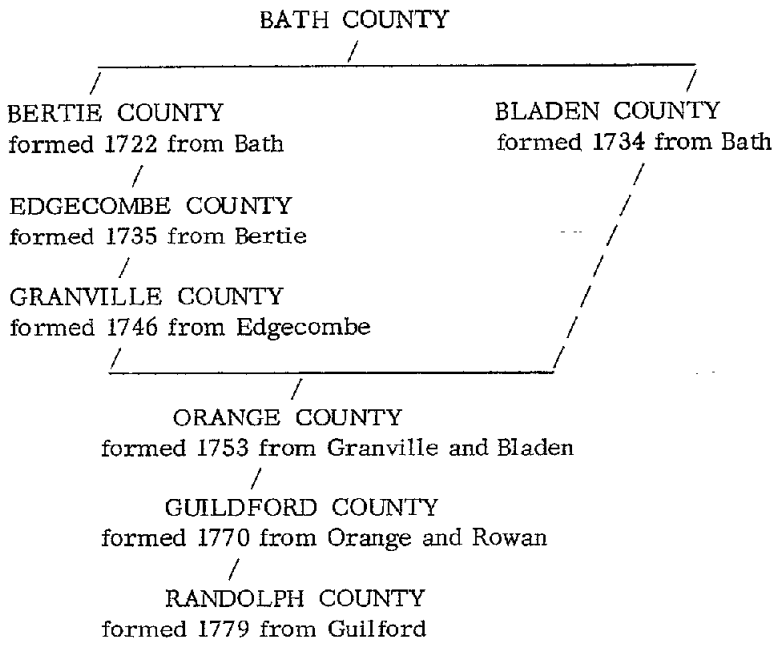
Probable child of John Aldridge:

I JACOB, b abt 1700; had negroes baptised in St. Peter's Parish, New Kent Co., Virginia, in 1721, 1723, 1727 and 1730. (St. Peter's Vestry Book, pp. 74-76.)

WILLIAM ALDRIDGE, eldest son of William Aldridge or Arledge and probably his first wife ALICE ..... was born about the year 1704, in Wicomico Parish, Northumberland County, Virginia. He is given one half of his father's tract of land in Wicomico Parish, his portion being the plantation, in his father's will dated 15 Aug. 1724.

He appears to have gone to North Carolina shortly afterwards, and is said to have had a grant of land there in what was then Bertie Co. in the year 1725. (Abridged Compendium of American Genealogy, Vol. VII, p. 785; Letter from Mrs. Memory Aldridge Lester, March 1948.)

A genealogy of these counties of North Carolina may be helpful as a guide at this stage, indicating the propriety of quoting records from each county for a certain period of years.



Thus if a family of Aldridges or Allreds settled on the waters of Deep River or the branches thereof prior to the year 1755, they would in that year be in Orange County and until 1770; from 1770-1779 in Guilford; and subsequently in Randolph. William Aldridge, obtaining a grant in Bertie Co. in 1725 could conceivably appear on the records of these counties successively: Bertie (1722-1735); Edgecombe (1735-1746); Granville (1746-1753); Orange (1753-1770); Guilford (1770-1779). He is said to have died in 1770. His posterity could undoubtedly be found in the records of Randolph County from 1779 on.

With this as a guide we can now examine the records for any notation concerning the WILLIAM ALDRIDGE in question, or members of his family.

A list of Orange County Taxables, made in the year 1755, include these names:

THOMAS ALLRED	2 whites	JOHN ALRED	1 white
WILLIAM ALDRIGE	1 white	WILLIAM ALRED	1 white
SOLOMON ALRED	1 white	WILLIAM ALRED	1 white

(Film, No. Carolina Rec., No. 15, Pt. 2)

These are evidently WILLIAM ALDRIDGE and his brother JOHN, (who with his descendants in North Carolina most frequently used the spelling ALDRED or ALLRED, with numerous variations) and the older sons of these two brothers. Each brother had a son William; both here being listed as ALRED. Solomon and Thomas were sons of John, judging by later deeds and family traditions, and other evidences.

On 15 March 1756 a grant of 520 acres was made to JOHN ALDRED in Orange County (later Randolph). In September 1758 there was a grant from Earl Granville to WILLIAM ALDRIDGE.

In 1763 there was "A deed of sale from the Earl of Granville to WILLIAM ALDRED for 200 acres of Land was proved in open Court by the oath of William Charton and was ordered to be Registered, Courthouse in Corbin Town the Second Tuesday in November 1763." (This was William the son of John.) In 1760 there was a grant to SOLOMAN ALLRED on both sides of the mouth of Mount Pleasant Creek. In 1762 CLEMENT ALDRIDGE purchased 300 acres in Granville Co. on Buffalo Creek. In 1764 NATHN ALDRIDGE had a grant of 200 acres in what was then called Tryon Co.

In May 1765 Daniel McDaniel deeded 100 acres to WILLIAM ALDREDGE. In July 1768 WILLIAM ALDREDGE deeded to Absalom McDaniel; with Semore York a witness; and Absalom McDaniel deeded to JAMES ALDREDGE, with Semore York a witness.

There is a gap in the Orange County Deeds from Oct. 1768 to 4 Feb. 1793. But in Guilford County Deed Book A, pp. 165-167, is this interesting record:

James ALLDREDG to Semore York.

8 May 1772 JAMES ALLDRIDGE of Guilford County, N. C. to Se-more York of same, said JAMES ALLDREDGE for £47 sells tract on both sides of Mount Pleasant Creek a branch of Sandy Creek in Guilford County, 50 acres, bounding Absolem McDaniels... crossing Mount Pleasant Creek... "it being part of a tract of land which Semore York purchased of James ALLREDGE which said JAMES ALLREDGE purchased of Absalom McDaniel which sd Absalom McDaniel purchased of WILLIAM ALLDREDGE which sd WILLIAM ALLDREDGE purchased of Daniel McDaniel" who purchased of Absalom McDaniel which sd Absalom McDaniel purchased of James Nickleroy who cleared a deed for the same of the Right Honourable John Earl of Granville bearing date 30th Day of June 1762.... the said JAMES ALLDREDGE, etc. his Witnesses: William Wellbourn JAMES A ALLDRIDGE

Jeremiah York -- Recorded. mark

The variations in the spelling of the surname are extremely interesting at this stage of the Family History.

On 21 May 1768 there is the deposition of Parish Gardner of Orange Co., North Carolina that the Sheriff carried off certain of his household goods in satisfaction for a debt in 1766 " to WILLIAM ALDREADS and left them ten or eleven months, in which time the Deponent sent the money by WILLIAM ALDERED several times to the said Sheriff but he refused to receive it." (Colonial Records of North Carolina, 7:775.)

In 1768, during the courageous stand of the "Regulators" in Orange County and elsewhere against the high fees paid for recording, etc., there was signed this "Petition of the inhabitants of Orange County, North Carolina. Complaining they pay higher fees for recording Deeds than any of the adjacent Counties and many other fees more than the Law allows." The signors include:

JAMES ALDRIDGE NICH: ALDRIDGE WM ALRID, SR.
WM ALRID, JR. NATHAN ALDRIDGE (Ibid., 7:735-737.)

No record has yet been found of the name of the Wife of WILLIAM ALDRIDGE. In the absence of more direct evidence it is presumed the following are his children:

Children of William Aldridge:

x I WILLIAM, b abt 1733; d Nov or Dec 1789; mar ELIZABETH.....

x II NATHANIEL, b abt 1735; living in 1790; mar .....

III SAMUEL, b abt 1737; living 1789.

x IV NATHAN, b abt 1740; will dated 23 Mar 1818; mar HANNAH.....

x V NICHOLAS, b abt 1742; mar .....

VI JAMES, b abt 1745

JOHN ALDRIDGE or ALDRED or ALRED, son of William Aldridge and probably his first wife ALICE.....was born 16 May 170- (probably 1706) in Wicomico Parish, Northumberland County, Virginia. His father in his will dated 25 Aug. 1724, bequeathed "unto my Sons WILLIAM & JOHN ARLEDGE my Tract of Land lying in wiccocomico parrish to be Equally Divided between them my Son WILLIAM to have the plantation I Give it to them and their heirs forever. I likewise Give my Still to my three Sons WM: JNO & CLEMT ARLEDGE Each of them to have their Equal part in her;" and he likewise provided that "Charles Fallin have the Tuition of my Son JNO UNTIL HE COMES TO THE AGE OF 21 YEARS." This would fix his year of birth definitely between the years of 1705 and 1709.

He evidently remained in Northumberland County after his elder brother William had received land in North Carolina. He is mentioned there in connection with his brother Clement in 1740:

"May 1740 CLEMENT ARLEDGE haveing obtained an attachment under the hand of Thos Gill one of the Magistrates of this County against the Estate of JOHN ARLEDG for ye sum of nine hundred pounds of Tobo & the Sherriff of this County haveing thereupon returned yt May ye 2nd day 1739 then attached the Estate of JOHN ARLEDGE for ye use of CLEMENT ARLEDGE as followeth v: st to one small bed and furniture 1 iron pot to som peuter, to frying pan to some old iron to one sow & eight pigs to 2 chests to som old lumber. Executed by me Joseph Hudnell sub. the & the sd CLEMENT ARLEDGE haveing made oath that five hundred & eighty pounds of tobo were due to him for rent Judgment is granted him for ye same With Costs & ordered ye sd Sherriff Sell ye sd goods by way of outcry & pay ye sd Sum of five hundred & thirty pounds of tobo & costs to ye sd CLEMENT ARLEDGE if Assets." (Northumberland County Order Book, 1737-1743, 10:92.)

This may be an indication that by the above dates John already removed his residence.

This marriage entry may relate to this same John:

JOHN ALDRIGE married ANNIE HAMILTON, June 11 1738," in Overwharton Parish, Stafford County, Virginia. (Overwharton Parish Record, p. 1). If so, it was evidently his second marriage. Anne was the daughter of James Hambleton and his wife Grace. Her father in his will dated 17 Nov. 1726, proved 29 Mar. 1727, mentions wife Grace and "my three children". The will of Grace Hambleton, dated 11 Feb. 1727, and proved on the same day as her husbands', names "my deceased husband James: my children James, John and Anne; said ANNE to have my rings and clothes." (Westmoreland County, Va., Wills, p. 87.)

A list of Taxables of Orange County, for the year 1755, show living there on that date:

THOMAS ALLRED	2 whites	JOHN ALRED	1 white
WILLIAM ALDRIGE	1 white	WILLIAM ALRED	1 white
SOLOMON ALRED	1 white	WILLIAM ALRED	1 white

(Film, North Carolina Records, No. 15, pt. 2.)

On 15 Mar. 1755 is recorded a "Grant from Earl Granville to JOHN ALDRED of Orange County, North Carolina, of 640 acres. Entry 154. No. 01128".

On 15 Mar. 1755 there was a "Grant to JOHN ALDRED of 520 acres on both sides of Mt. Pleasant Creek. Grant No. 31 File No. 325. Orange County Grant Book." (14:332.)

In the Court of Claim Land Grants is a record that JOHN ALRED was awarded 300 acres in Anson Co., No. 221, recorded 1 July 1774.

At the period of insurrection of the "Regulators" and its tragic aftermath, JOHN ALDRED or ALRED must have been in full sympathy with those who opposed official tyranny. There is preserved one petition from a group of his neighbors and he in behalf of Thomas Welborn, who appears to have come under investigation for his part in the struggle.

"Orange and Guilford Countys, N. C. August 25th 1771

It is probable that JOHN ALDRIDGE (ALDRED or ALRED) died before the formation of Randolph County in 1779. The incompleteness of some of the records of Randolph's parent Counties leaves the date uncertain.

Children of JOHN ALDRIDGE or ALDRED or ALRED:

x I THOMAS, b abt 1730, prob Northumberland Co., Va; will proved May 1810; mar ELIZABETH .....

x II WILLIAM, b abt 1732, prob Northumberland; will proved May 1825; mar ELIZABETH x III SOLOMON, b abt 1734, prob Northumberland; living 1790; mar MARY .....

x IV JOHN, b abt 1736, prob Northumberland; d 1792; mar MARGARET CHENEY.

CLEMENT ALDRIDGE or ARLEDGE, son of William Aldridge or Arledge and probably his first wife ALICE..... was born about 1708, in Wicomico Parish, Northumberland County, Virginia.

In May 1740 CLEMENT ARLEDGE obtained an Attachment against the Estate of JOHN ARLEDGE. He was still in Northumberland County, Virginia in May 1743, living in what was then called St. Stephen's Parish (formed by uniting Fairfield and Bowtracy Parishes), but after the sale as described in the following Deed probably removed to North Carolina, where evidently his brothers had preceeded him.

"Indenture 9 May 1743 between CLEMENT ALREGE of the Parish of St. Stephens in the County of Northumberland and Collony of Virginia of the one part & William Thomas of the Parish of Wiccomoco in the County of Northumberland.... the sd CLEMENT ALRIDG for £ sells a tract of land in the Parish of St. Stephens, one hundred acres formerly James Mungum on the north side of Great Wicocomico River commonly known by the name of Fox path.... plantation that was formerly Dennis Conways according to the survey of Capt. (Northumberland Co. Record Book, 22:243.)

We next hear of him in Granville County, North Carolina, 1762.

"9 Nov. 1762. Francis Capps of Granville Co. to CLEMENT ALLRIDGE of the aforesd County for £ 18 in Gold and silver Koin in hand paid by the sd CLEMENT ALDRIDGE.... to the said aldridge.... said Clement Aldridge.... 300 acres of land.... being a survey taken by James Gentry Lying on the Head of Bufelow Creek in the County aforesaid on the south side of the Bufelow sd CLEMENT ARLEDGE.... said CLEMMENT ARLEDGE.... Witness -- Francis Bell."

Note the variations in the spelling of this surname. The marginal notation to this deed reads: "Fra. Capps to CLEMMENT ARLEDGE." (Granville Co., N. C. Deeds, Book F, pp. 152-154.)

The Federal Census of Camden District, Fairfield Co., South Carolina, for 1790, shows living there as heads of families: AMOS ARLEDGE, CLEMENTS ARLEDGE, JOSEPH ARLEDGE and MOSES ARLEDGE, and ISAAC ARLEDGE.

Children of Clement Aldridge or Arledge and Ann:

x I AMOS, b abt 1734, St. Stephen's Parish, Northumberland Co,, Va.; living 1790; md.

x II ISAAC, b abt 1736, St. Stephen's Parish; living 1790; md.

x IV MOSES, b abt 1740, St. Stephen's Parish; living 1790; md.

WILLIAM ALDRIDGE, son of William Aldridge, was born about 1733, probably in what was then Bertie County, but is now Randolph County, North Carolina. The area of his residence was successively in Edgecombe, Granville, Orange, Guilford and Randolph Counties. When a list of Taxables was made for Orange County in 1755, there was among them three Williams:

WILLIAM ALDRIGE	1 white	WILLIAM ALRED	1 white
WILLIAM ALRED	1 white

One of these was undoubtedly the father and the other the son; the third being William son of John Aldridge (or Alred), brother of William, the father. At this stage of the Family History, and for a generation or so later, members may be found listed on the records with the spellings ALDRIDGE, ALDREDGE, ALDRIGE, ARLEDGE, ALDRED, ALLRED, etc., according to the fancy of the recorder who wrote the names.

For the earlier period it is not always possible to distinguish the father from the son in the deeds and other records.

The Earl of Granville made a Grant of Land in Sept. 1758 to WILLIAM ALDRIDGE. In May 1765 WILLIAM ALDREDGE was deeded 100 acres by Daniel McDaniel. This was transferred in July 1768 to Absalom McDaniel. Eventually this land came into the possession of JAMES ALDREDGE, brother of the son of William. (see p. 1-84.)

The petition against exhorbitant fees recording was signed by WM ALRID, SR. and WM ALRID, JR. in 1768. One of these was probably the William now under consideration.

When Randolph County was formed in 1779, a list of Taxables was drawn up. This list included the names of WM ALLRED, SR., WILLIAM ALLDRIDGE, NATH^{L} ALLDRIDGE and THOMAS ARLEGE. In the same year among those performing jury duty the name appears under these spellings: WILLIAM ALLRIDGE, WILLIAM ALDRIGE, WILLIAM ALREGE. In 1782 we find as jurors: WM ALRIDGE, WILL ALDREDG.

"No. 78 WILLIAM ALDRIDGE Enters 200 acres on Sandy Creek Waters including his improvements 14th 9th 1784." (Land Entries for Randolph County, 1783-1795.)

On 9th of March 1779 WILLIAM ALLDRIDGE was named a juror to attend the session of the Supreme Court at Hillsborough. Among petit jurors was named WILLIAM ELLIGE or ELLEGE. On 14 Sept. 1779 WILLIAM ALDRIGE was appointed a juror to attend the next Supreme Court at Hillsborough on 1st of April. On 11 Sept. 1780 WILLIAM ALREGE was called to serve on a jury regarding a mill. The next day WILLIAM ALDRIGE was on another jury to evaluate land. In Sept. 1781 WM ADRIDGE was on a venire for a jury and WILLIAM ALRIGHT was appointed to serve as a constable. In 1782 his name was written several times as ALRIDGE and ALDRIDGE for grand and petit juror, and WILLIAM ALDGEDG was a surety. On 12 Sept. 1782 WILLIAM ALRIDGE, JUN. was called for jury duty for the 2nd Monday in December. (Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions for Randolph County.)

Jeremiah York in his will dated 8 Jan. 1782, proved Mar. 1783, bequeathed to his son Semore York one half of the land "whereon he now lives..... and part which lies adjoining to the plantation whereon WILLIAM ALLRED SENR now lives." NATHAN ALLDRIDGE was a witness. (Randolph County Wills, 1:8-10.)

"27 Jan. 1786. Henry Pierce of Randolph County, N. C., to NATHAN ALDRIDGE of same, for Ł 70 a tract on Mt. Pleasant Creek in Randolph Co., 200 acres," and the Witnesses were Jeremiah York and WILLIAM ALDRIDGE. (Randolph Co. Deeds, 3:90.)

On 27 April 1789 there was a State Grant #526 to WILLIAM ALDRIDGE of a tract of 185 acres on Sandy Creek Waters. (Ibid., 3:360.)

This same Year he made his Will and Passed away.

In the name of God Amen, I WILLIAM ALDRIDGE of Randolph County and State of North Carolina being sick and in a low state of health but of perfect mind and memory.....do make, Ordain, Constitute and Afirm this my Last Will and Testamente.... and as touching my worldly Estate that it has pleased God to bless me with in this life I dispose thereof in manner and form following.

Isaac Alldredge, a grandson of the above Ezekial, wrote down this record of William Aldridge's family - a faithful record except that the father's name was given as EZEKIAL instead of WILLIAM, and the daughters Susannah and Merriata were omitted. The matter of Scotch descent was evidently based on some family tradition, and probably referred to one of the mother's lines, which may have originated in Scotland. Clearly the Aldridge family did not.

Elizabeth ALDRIDGE, the widow, was listed in the Census of 1790 for Hillsborough District, Randolph County, with 2 males in family over 16, two males under 16, and three females. (p. 98)

NICHOLAS ALDRIDGE, probably son of William Aldridge, was probably born about 1735 (1742/) in what is now Randolph County, North Carolina. In 1768 he was one of the signers of a petition of residents of Orange County complaining against unreasonable fees for Registration of Deeds, etc., along with NATHAN ALDRIDGE and JAMES ALDRIDGE, WM ALRID, SR. and WM ALRID, JR.

He evidently took part in the uprising of the Regulators, and suffered confiscation of his lands in Rowan County, for his own part, or that of his son.

"13 July 1781. Whereas, it appears to this house by Petition that the lands of a certain _____ ALDRIDGE, Father of WILLIAM ALDRIGE of Rowan County had been taken from him by David Caldwell, one of the Commissioners of Confiscated Property for said County, on suspicion of his, the said _____ ALDRIDGE having had bound a son of his heretofore in Arms against the State, which fact the said ALDRIDGE denies and it is yet unproved.

"Resolved, therefore, that the said David Caldwell be, and he is hereby ordered and directed, to deliver up the said land to him, the said ALDRIDGE." (Colonial Records of North Carolina, 17:865-866, 967.)

"Petition of WILLIAM ELDRIDGE in Rowan County.

4 May 1782. Read the Petition of WILLIAM ELDRIDGE whereupon resolved that the Commissioners of Confiscated Estates in the County of Rowan be authorized and Directed to put WILLIAM ELDRIDGE in possession of two tracts of land of a hundred and fifty acres each on the waters of Hunting Creek entered in the name of NICHOLAS ALDRIDGE supposed to come within the Description of Confiscated Estates. And that the State relinquish all claim to the Lands aforesaid. (Ibid.,)

"24 Nov. 1786. Received a resolve in favor of WILLIAM ALDRIDGE, which being read, was concurred with and returned." (Ibid. 18:19.)

"24 Nov. 1786. On reading the Memorial of WILLIAM ALDRIDGE, Comptroller directed to issue two specie certificates one in the name of Jesse Smith for £ 68 and the other for Charles Brittingham for £ 56. 9. 2, which were destroyed by fire." (Ibid., 18:247, 254.)

Children of Nicholas Aldridge:

I WILLIAM, b abt 1753, of Rowan County, N. C.; md. 18 Dec. 1772, HANNAH BELL.

II THOMAS, b abt 1754, of Guilford Co., N. C.; md. a daughter of Simon Taylor. "Deed THOMAS ELDREG of the County of Guilford and in the Province of North Carolina of the one part and David Macy of the same place of the other part Witnesseth that the said THOMAS ELDREDG for £ 65 proclamation money .... grants a certain tract in the County and Province aforesaid on the Waters of Ready Fork a branch of Nard River 135 acres .... on south side of Bever Creek .... It being a certain piece of land Granted to him the said THOMAS ELDRIC by his father-in-law Simon Taylor as may be made appear the Record of Rowan Court together with Houses, fences, orchards, etc." THOMAS ELDREDG. (Guilford County Deed Book A: 163-165.)

NATHANIEL ALDRIDGE, probably son of William Aldridge, was probably born in what is now Randolph County, North Carolina about 1735. There are a few references to NATHANIEL ALDRIDGE in the records and some of these may actually relate to NATHAN ALDRIDGE.

A list of Taxables of Randolph County in 1779 lists the name of NATH^{L} ALLDRIDGE, 9 acres improved land, 200 other, 11 cattle, 3 horses. Total 346.

The Census of North Carolina show a NATH^{L} ALDREDGE living at Salisbury District, Surry County, in 1790.

That for South Carolina in 1790 shows the following living in the 96th District, Abbeville County; NATH^{L} ALDRIGE SEN^{R}., NATH^{L} ALDRIGE JR., and in the 96th District, Spartanburgh County: WM ALDRIGE.

Probable Children of Nathaniel Aldridge:

I NATHANIEL, JR., b abt 1761; living 1790, Aberville Co., S. C.

II WILLIAM, b abt 1763; living 1790, Spartanburgh Co., S. C.

NATHAN ALDRIDGE, son of William Aldridge, was born about 1740, in what is now Randolph County, North Carolina.

He is listed among the signers, with others of his family, of the "Petition of the Inhabitants of Orange Co., North Carolina. Complaining they pay higher fees for recording deeds than any of the adjacent counties and many other fees more than the law allows."

(Signed) JAMES ALDRIDGE WM ALRID, JR.
NICH: ALDRIDGE NATHAN ALDRIDGE
WM ALRID, SR.

(Colonial Records of North Carolina, 7:735-737.)

That was in the year 1768. On 28 Feb. 1773 NATH^{N} ALDRIDGE had a grant of 200 acres in Tryon County, N. C., grant #124. (Court of Claim Land Grants.) This had been entered 16 Nov. 1764.

The NATHL ALDRIDGE listed as a taxable of Randolph County in 1779 may have been meant for this NATHAN ALDRIDGE.

The will of Semore York, dated 8 Jan. 1782, mentions his eldest son Jeremiah York, and a number of sons and daughters. It was witnessed by NATHAN ALDRIGE, who made his mark; and it was proved by NATHAN ALLRIDGE in March 1783.

The will of Thomas York was witnessed by NATHAN ALLRIDGE

(mark) and WILLIAM ALLRIDGE: and proved by NATHAN ALLDRIDGE in Sept. 1790. (Randolph County Wills, 1:81-82.)

NATHAN ALDRIGE had a grant of 200 acres of land in 1785. Again in 1786 there was this grant: #329 for 50s for every 100 acres, Grant from the State of North Carolina to NATHAN ALDRIDGE of a tract of 200 acres in Randolph County on Mount Pleasant Sandy Creek Waters ....bounding Henry Pierce line....Johnathan McCollins Claim.... crossing a branch by JEREMIAH YORK....Peries line....to the said NATHAN ALDRIGE. 24 July 1786." (Randolph Co. Deeds, 3:15.)

"27 Jan. 1786. Henry Pierce of Randolph County, North Carolina, to NATHAN ALDRIDGE of same, for £ 70, tract on Mount Pleasant Creek in Randolph County, 200 acres, being part of a tract of land granted to the sd Henry Pierce, 2 Nov. 1784." Witnesses were JEREMIAH YORK and WILLIAM ALDRIDGE. (Ibid., 3:90.)

At the Census of Hillsborough District, Randolph County, North Carolina for 1790 NATHAN ALDRIDGE was recorded with 2 males in family over 16, 4 males under 16, and 7 females. (p. 98)

There is a deed from NATHAN ALRIDGE to Peter Smith dated 6 Nov. 1792. (Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, 1792-1804, proved by Christian Spoon and recorded.) Under dated of 17 Aug. 1796, a "Deed from NATHAN ALRIDGE to JEREMIAH YORK was proved by John White, Jr. & registered." (Ibid.)

The will of Nathan Aldridge is contributed by his descendant, Mrs. Memory Aldridge Lester, of New York City, who writes: "Nathan, who is my ancestor, lived Randolph Co., N. C., during the Revolution, and after that moved to Knox Co., Tennessee, where he died in 1818. From him I have a very complete genealogy. Family letters say that Nathan was wounded in the Revolution and was crippled and went blind before he died - hence the mark above as he couldn't have signed his name if he were blind."

"In the name of God amen. I NATHAN ALLDREDGE of the county of Knox being sick and weak in body but of sound mind and disposing memory (for which I thank God) and calling to mind the uncertainty of human life and being desirous to dispose of all such worldly substance as it has pleased God to bless me with I give and bequeath to my well-beloved wife HANNAH to live in the house I now live in during her natural life if she should continue a widow. Also 2 feather beds and furniture

"Item I give to my daughter ELEANOR YORK $1.
"Item I give to my daughter MARGARET ALLRED $1.
"Item I give to my daughter SYLVANIA LONG $1.
"Item I give to my daughter MARY ALLRED $1.

"Item I give to my son JAMES 50 acres of land where he now lives running straight across the tract beginning on the lower line of the tract I live on running north 45, east so as to include 50 acres on his part.

"Item I give to my son ENOCH ALLDREDGE 50 acres of land where I now live to run straight across the tract with James' line. He had moved with his Parents to what was then Orange County, but is now Randolph County, North Carolina, prior to 1755, when he first appears upon the Records there. By this date he was married and probably had one child born.

The list of Taxables for Orange County for 1755, shows THOMAS ALLRED with two whites in his family. (Orange Co., Taxables, p. 42-film copy. This list was attested 9 March 1756.)

The first list of Taxables made in Randolph County after its formation in 1779, drawn up that same year, including in one group THOMAS and four of his sons: ELIAS ALLRED, JOHN ALLRED, JR. JOHN ALLRED 1 male 10-16; 1 male 16-26; 1 male over 45; 1 female 26-45; 1 female over 45.
JOHN ALLRED 1 male under 10; 1 male 26-45; 4 females under 10; 2 females 10-16; 1 female 26-45.
JOHN ALLRED 3 males under 10; 1 male 10-16; 1 male 26 - 45; 1 female under 10; 1 female 10-16; 1 female 16-45.

Of these it is difficult to determine which is the son of THOMAS.

The sons THOMAS, JR. and LEVI do not appear as heads of families in the 1800 Census; but in that for 1810 both of them appear, being between 26-45 years of age. THOMAS ALLRED the Father was deceased by 1810.

From the records of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions for Randolph County it is learned that THOMAS ALLRED was appointed a Juror 16 March 1780. On 13 June 1780 he was fined for not appearing as a juror. Next day he was reappointed a juror. 9 Sept. 1782 he was named as a Grand Juror.

On 13 Feb. 1782 ELIAS ALLRED, John Aldridge and George Julian were charged with having joined the British and were bound to the Court, but on their appearing were discharged by Proclamation.

The most direct evidence as to the name of Thomas Allred's father is found in the two deeds quoted below:

"10 Apr. 1788 Thomas Allred to Jeremiah York

Indenture between THOS ALLRED & his wife ELIZABETH of Randolph County & State of North Carolina of the one part and JEREMIAH YORK of the County & State aforesaid of the other part for £142 specie to them paid by the said Jerry York land on both sides of Mount Pleasant Creek, Sandy Creek waters in Randolph Co., 154 acres, it being part of a tract of land said THOMAS purchased of JOHN ALLRED for which land JOHN obtained a grant of land of the Earl of Granville March 1756.

"1 Sept. 1788, Thomas Allred to James Allred

C. to JAMES ALLRED of same for £ 50 specie other paid by said JAMES ALLRED tract on Mount Pleasant Creek said Co., 116 acres, it being part of a tract of land which said THOS. purchased of JOHN ALLRED who obtained a deed from the Earl Granville dated March 15th 1756." (Ibid., 4:)

His son JOHN had married a wife named RUTH prior to 1792, when the next deed was recorded.

"Indenture 28th April 1794 between JOHN ALRED of Randolph Co., planter, & RUTH his wife to THOMAS ALRED of same county. Sd JOHN ALRED & RUTH ALRED for & in Consideration of the sum of £30 to them in hand paid by the sd THOMAS ALRED the receipt whereof the sd John and Ruth Alred his wife do hereby acknowledge convey a tract on both sides of Solomons Creek Branch, 150 acres, it being part of a grant of land which sd JOHN ALRED cleared a grant fore the 18th day of August 1787.

(Ibid., 5:175.)

There was a State Grant of land to THOMAS ALRED for 100 acres on the Waters of Sandy Creek adjoining John Jones Corner and James Alred's Corner and a grant to John Alred on the Waters of Deep River. This was entered 16 Feb. 1796; grant dated 20 Aug. 1802. (ibid., 10: 281; 9:165.)

LEVI ALLRED entered a State Grant on 13 March 1800 for 75 acres on the Waters of Solomon's Creek, adjoining George Wright's Corner. The grant was officially recorded 24 Aug. 1804. (Randolph Co. Deeds, 10:154.)

On 3 Nov. 1801 THOMAS ALRED and LEVI ALRED were assigned to work on the road from John Wheler's to the Creek near Richard Grimes. These were probably the two younger sons of THOMAS ALLRED, SR.

On 3 Feb. 1802 JOHN ALRED of THOMAS was mentioned in court records.

"Indenture 14 Jan. 1803 between JOHN ALRED of Randolph Co. & THOMAS ALRED of same for $50 a tract of land on the waters of Sandy Creek bounded on Robert Field's land... JOHN ALRED'S old corner.. Adam Brower's Line, 65-1/2 acres. Recorded 9 Feb. 1803, being duly proven in open Court by Adam Brower." (Randolph Co. Deeds 9:354; Court Minutes, 1802-1808, p. 30.)

"Indenture 24 December 1810 between THOMAS ALRED of Randolph Co. & John Hobson Joshua Hobson of Chatham Co., for $170 sells tract on waters of Sandy Creek bounded on Robert Field's Corner....Adam Brower's line.

This was evidently THOMAS ALLRED, JR., since the last will and testament of the father was proved in May 1810.

"In the name of God amen. I THOMAS ALRED of Randolph County and State of North Carolina being in a low State of health but of perfect mind and memory thanks be to God for it calling to mind the mortality of the body and knowing it is appointed for all men once to die, and touching such worldly estate as it hath pleased God to endow me with I give and dispose of the Same in manner & form hereinafter mentioned hereby revoking & disanuling all former wills and testaments by me made:

allowing and confirming this to be my last will & testament. Principally & first of all I recommend my Soul into the hands of Almighty God who gave it, and my body To the earth to be buried at the discretion of my friends.

"I give and bequeath to ELIZABETH my well beloved wife all my stock of cattle except one cow & calf and all my hogs & sheep and one bed & bedstead & furniture the dressers in the kitchen & all the articles on them & one iron pot & Dutch oven.

"Item, I give to my Sons & Daughters, JAMES, WILLIAM, ELIAS, JOHN, MOSES, & ELI, RACHEL BROWN & ELIZABETH JONES, each the Sum of Twelve shillings to be paid out of the stock bequeathed to my wife.

"Item, I give to my grandson WILLIAM ALRED son of ELIAS ALRED young bay horse.

"I give to my Son LEVI the tract of land whereon I now live containing 150 acres, reserving to my aforesaid Wife the privilege of living in the house and enjoying the plantation during her natural life. And the remainder of my estate I give to my said Son LEVI. I appoint my son LEVI Executor of this my last will and Testament. Witness my hand and Seal this 8th day of November 1809. DESCENDANTS OF THOMAS ALLRED WHO WERE IN THE MORMON BATTALION

The above graph shows the names of those men and women who were in Company A of the Mormon Battalion. Each member's name is preceeded by a number designating where he appeared in his father's family.

When the Mormons were forced to flee from Nauvoo, Illinois, they crossed the Missouri River upon the ice or between the drifting ice floes into the rain and mud of the inclement Iowa weather. They wended their anguished way like a flow of never ending ants through Garden Grove and Mount Pisgah and finally joined President Brigham Young's Company on the banks of the Missouri River in Pottawattomie Co., Iowa. They were camped here when U. S. Captain James Allen arrived with orders from President Polk. He was mustering 500 "volunteers" into the Regular United States Army to assist the Country which had just driven them from her borders, to seize California in the war against Mexico.

Redick Newton Allred, along with his brother James Riley Allred, and his cousin, James Tilman Sanford Allred, and the latter's nephew, Reuben Warren Allred, were mustered into Company A. James Tilman Sanford's wife, Eliza Bridget Manwaring, and Reuben Warren's wife, Elzadie Emeline Ford, were allowed to accompany and assist their husbands.

A ball was given in honor of the Battalion before they left for Fort Leavenworth where they were promised arms and clothing would be issued to them.

They journeyed down the east side of the Missouri River to a point opposite the City and then crossed into Fort Leavenworth. Here most of the men asked for money in lieu of tendered rations and clothing, and their wishes were granted. This money was sent back to the Saints.

From here on the Battalion followed the trail of General Kearney, Commander of the Army of the West.

Due to foul weather, insufficient rations, and forced marches imposed by Colonel Smith, who because of Captain Allen's death, had been appointed to lead them, many of the Company became seriously ill. Under the direction of Captain Higgins, 50 of the sick were taken to Pueblo, Colorado, where they "wintered".

The remainder of the Company marched on to Santa Fe, New Mexico, arriving October 12, 1846. It was at this place that 86 more members were pronounced too sick to continue and all of the women and children were detached and sent back to Pueblo. All these were to join the Battalion in the spring. Reuben Warren Allred and his wife, and James Tilman Sanford Allred and his wife, were in this group.

The rest of the Battalion, having received new rations, moved on toward California. After traveling 300 miles to the south, another group of 52 men were declared too feeble to continue and they were detached to return under Lieutenant W. W. Higgins, to Pueblo. This group of suffering humanity endured unspeakable hardships before they finally reached their destination between December 20 and 24th, 1846.

The now depleted Battalion struggled onward into California. Though many became too weak to walk, all of them somehow managed to survive the remaining obstacles and the long marches until they reached San Diego, having traveled for 102 days after leaving Santa Fe.

The War with Mexico was now over. The troops were engaged in building forts and homes. Some time later the Battalion moved up to Los Angeles, where they remained until July 16, 1847, when they were mustered out of the service.

Redick Newton Allred was appointed as a Captain of 50 to assist members on the return trip. His brother, James Riley, was in this group. On August 26, 1847, this Company reached Sutter's Fort on the Sacramento River, 600 miles from Los Angeles. After resting for a few days, they continued their treck back to Salt Lake or to their families on their way to Zion. Among those who sought out their families was Redick Newton Allred. He found them camped at "Allred Settlement" on the Missouri River, and he accompanied them and assisted them in the completion of their arduous thousand mile journey to the Great Basin.
