Linda Allred Cooper (2021):

Many years ago, I was told an antique Secretary Desk was purchased and the new owner closely examined it looking for any hidden or secret drawers or hiding places. He found one and inside were the person papers of Captain John Hinds. Those papers were donated to the McClung Historical Collection by members of the Kathleen Parkman Lamb family. I don't know if this is a true story or not but could explain where the papers came from. Copies of the pages dealing with Captain Hinds' military records/career were emailed to me by Capt. John Henry Hinds is mentioned in the will of Joseph Hinds (1770-04-04).

At age 8, he was apprenticed to Robert Carlisle of Rocksbury NJ to become a cordwainer (shoemaker). He was a Captain in Regiment of Horsemen commanded by Colonel Luttrell, Randolph Co, NC. (1781) He is on the 1784 Burke Co NC tax rolls.

"In 1792 John Hinds, a Revolutionary soldier, came with his sons Sylvanus, Joseph, Simeon, and John Jr. to Roane County.

He made an entry for 1000 acres of land which became known as Hinds Valley" - History of Roane County, c1928 Carol Wells. (shouldn't that be Levi, not Joseph?)

TN Land Grants - 26 Jun 1793, John Henry is on the Knox Co TN tax rolls in 1806. A newspaper article from "Rockwood Times" of Rockwood, TN, 28 Aug 1924 stated that when John Hinds arrived in Tennessee to claim the 1,000 acres of land granted for services during the American Revolution in the year 1792 that he was accompanied by "4 sons, 2 daughters, and a brother-in-law named Joseph Seaton." If John Henry had a brother-in-law named Joseph Seaton, either Joseph married John's sister, or John married Joseph's sister. I don't show any of John's sisters marrying a Seaton. Could his wife Abigail have been a Seaton?
